. . . of course you have. The desire for adventure, escape, excitement is only one of many moods an individual experiences from day to day. We are gay, exhilarated, effervescent, bubbling, light as a cloud, free as a bird. We are sad, melancholy, lonely, depressed, boxed in by a world that is too much with us. We are a study of contrasts—both proud and humble, shy and bold, strong and weak, selfish and considerate. We seek frantic gregarious togetherness and the quiet meditation of a solitary oneness.

Moods Often Express Themselves Visually.

Sometimes we express our moods in colors—blue days, red letter days, shining golden days, drab gray days. Sometimes moods are described in terms of action—setting the world on fire, painting the town red, drifting on a cloud. However they are expressed, we are all creatures of many moods. And you will see them all on campus, for these are the moods of Hawthorne High School.

Not a "D"?

"An "F"!

There must be a mistake!

No mistake? Ten weeks shot.

Oh, I knew you were kidding.

Business in the Vice Principal's office is pleasant today! For the present, Miss Selz and Mr. Wetzler have everything under control and are ready for a relaxed day at work. Please, students, no capris and beards today. It would be a shame to spoil those smiles. Seriously, HHS is lucky to have two such fine people in these positions.

Mr. Nelson doesn't seem too impressed by Miss Dicker's problems in scheduling classes. Perhaps he is mulling over some of the "rare" excuses he gets in the Attendance Office, or wondering when his next call for TV work will come. As Director of Curriculum and Guidance, however, Miss Dicker has to be concerned about the class offerings at Cougarville.

No wonder Mr. Kirkpatrick looks perplexed. The problem Mr. Morgan is putting on the board is unsolvable indeed! In fact, it is invisible!

Interesting Class Rooms With

As each individual person has many moods, so a faculty reflects changing patterns in tones of feeling. The quiet solitude of study, the robust good fellowship of spirited athletic contests, the stimulation of intellectual discussions—these are some of the feelings on campus. Setting the pace in establishing many of these moods is the faculty, eighty-five assorted human beings, male and female, who lead the way toward greater knowledge and better balance in living.

Best wishes always
Elaine Saal

We don't know whether this particular history lecture impressed his students when he gave it in class, but Mr. Repashy doesn't seem to be inspiring Mr. Heisner and Miss Heller with his efforts. Back to the library and more research, Mr. Repashy. Bigger and better lectures!

Yes, Mr. Clark, that's a lemon. Homemaking expert Miss Saal doesn't look impressed with your display of knowledge. She would much rather you and Mr. Caldwell didn't raid the refrigerator. It looks depleted. What will the cooking classes do now?

Two happy shop teachers, Mr. Bennett and Mr. Cracchiolo. Perhaps visions of pay day are floating before their eyes. On the other hand, maybe they are dreaming about summer vacation and time away from students and machines.

What lies beyond that door? Debonair Mr. Ormondroyd is trying very hard to keep Mrs. Mark and Miss Nelson from entering. Bet he isn't successful. Those seem to be two determined women!

What have you got to laugh at, Coach Jones? Can't you see that Mr. Bravo is in a devilish mood, ready to add the finishing touch to your water polo season! Happy dunking!

Friendly And Encouraging Teachers

A Great Number Of Varied Moods Prevail

What's this? Mrs. Corliss asking for secretarial help? Mr. Garza and Mr. Harrison seem willing enough, but it looks as if they're unprepared! C'mon, fellas, give a helping hand!

That slightly dubious look on Miss McGintys face could mean that she has problems with the COUGAR. Mr. Chaffey maintains a mood of great calm. Printing problems are old stories to him by now. Why get upset!

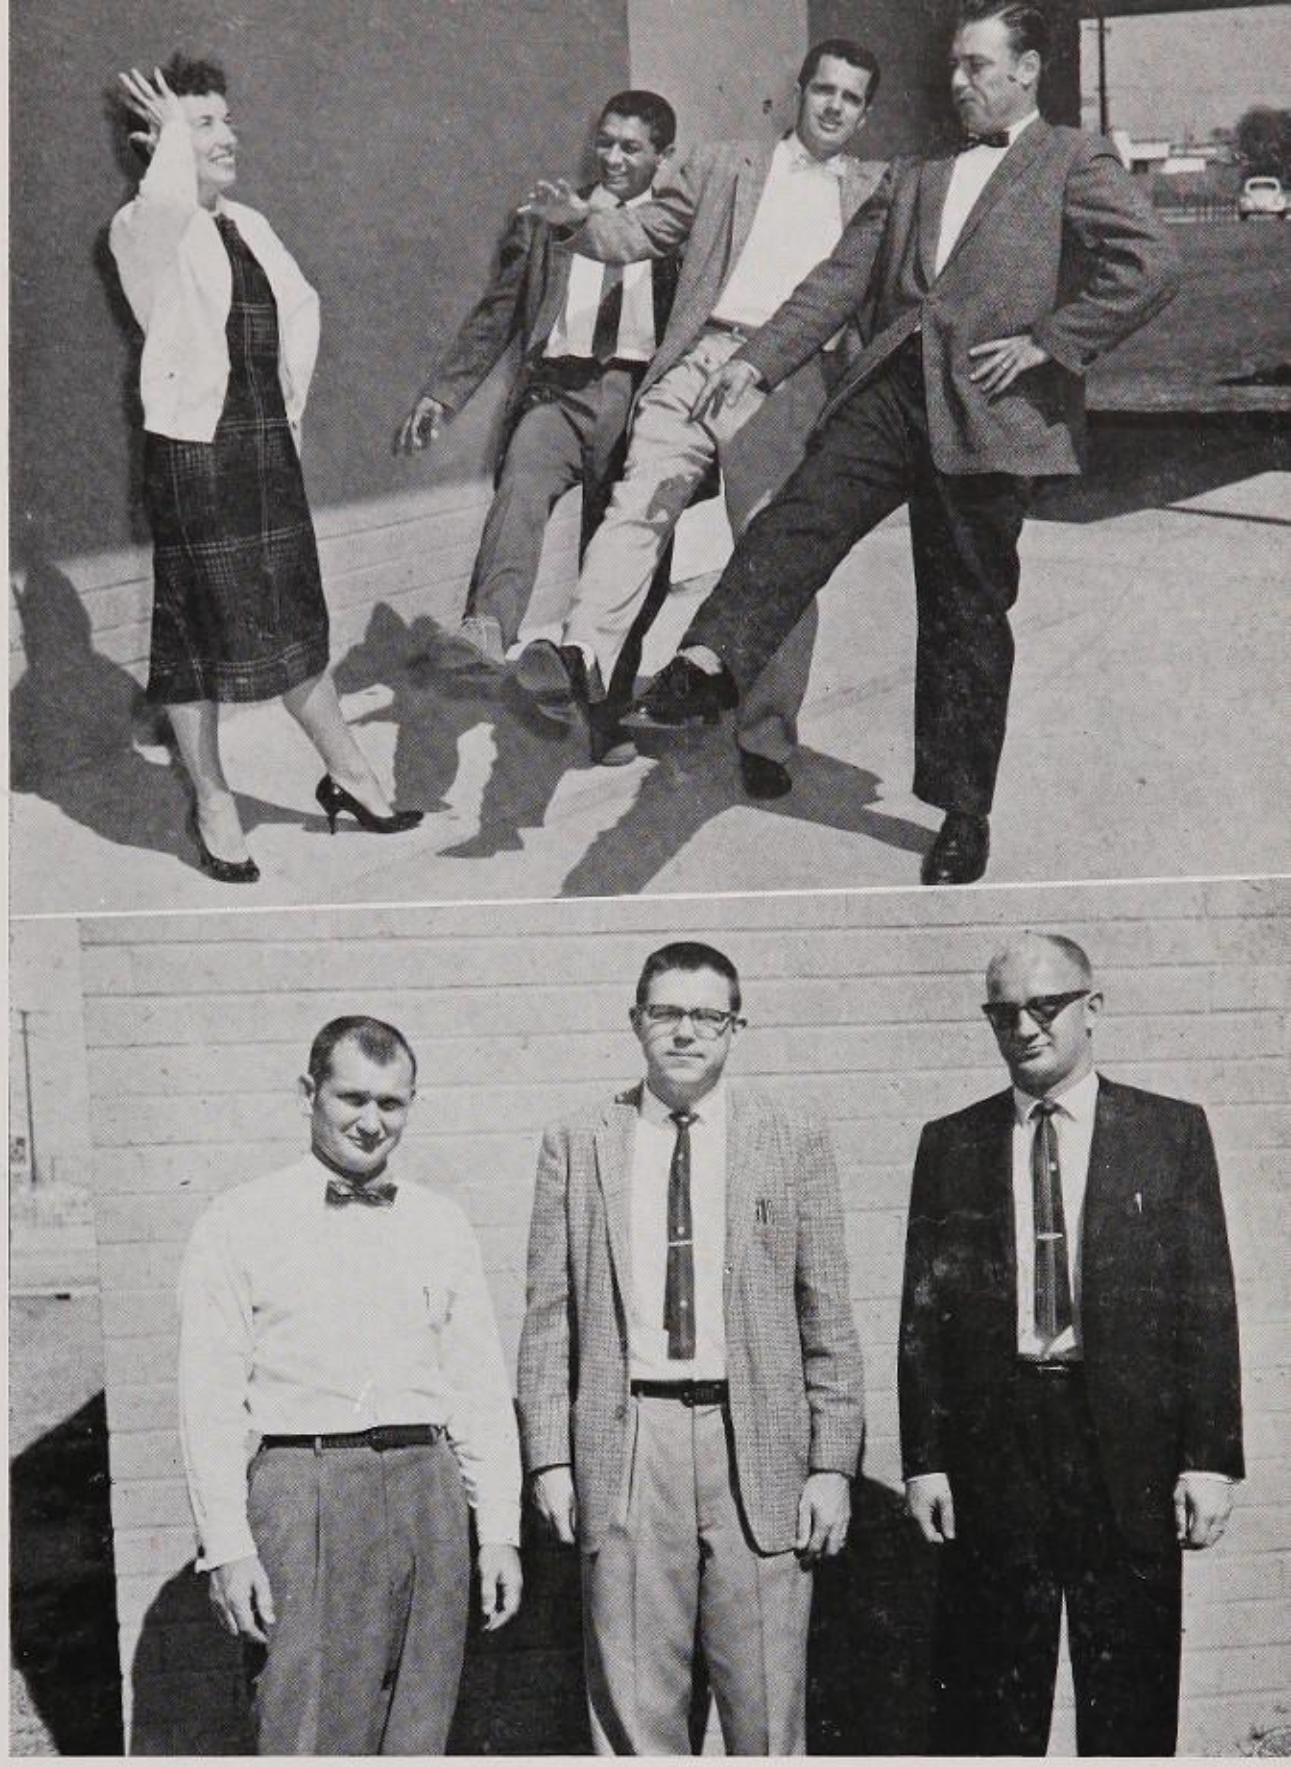
Jenny, it's been right good to have you in choir. Hope you'll stay with us as long as possible.
Richard Wing

Best Wishes to a very nice girl whose name I can pronounce.—
Mrs. Whitley

Hm-mm-mm. Everybody in tune? Mr. Wing and Mrs. Whitley enjoy singing a familiar Fred Waring tune, but Mrs. Bartholomew is just too hungry to join in. Put that cupcake down and join the chorus, Mrs. B!

On Campus

"You'll never make the Rockettes!" exclaims Mrs. Cable to Mr. Pizarro, Mr. Haueter, and Mr. Hall. Mr. Haueter looks quite joyful. Could it be his recent step to the altar that brings that happy look?



No, it's not the "line-up." Its only Mr. Archer, Mr. Silcox, and Mr. Smith calmly posing for our EL MOLINO camera. Any resemblance between these gentlemen and the criminal type is purely coincidental. Perhaps teaching the sciences has placed a permanent expression of grim determination on their faces.

Testing, 1-2-3! Mr. Acosta is tuning his tape recorder for his Spanish classes. The smiles on the faces of Mrs. Rubino and Miss Imes would indicate that it isnt really a Spanish lesson. A joke, perhaps? Careful, Mr. Acosta, just stick to your Spanish!

Arts

Put that poor creature back together, Mr. Kyllonen, this instant! The savage traits displayed here by Mr. K, along with Mr. Liles and Mr. Wade, are all in fun. Actually they wouldn't harm a fly, much less a human being.

Good luck
Jim McGrorty

Do you think the energetic and enthusiastic dramatic direction of Mr. Mossholder will ever make actors of Mr. Craig and Mr. McGrorty? They seem amused by the lesson, even though they may never win Oscars from their students.

Coach Sevier, these are teachers. You cannot make Mr. Graves, Miss McClain, and Mrs. Roth march to class! Go on out to your gym classes and make the students toe the mark.

Crafts, Sciences, And Languages,

Mr. Goodfellow seems a bit puzzled as "Toulouse" Williams puts the finishing touches on one of his paintings. Dig that crazy brush! No wonder Mr. Goodfellow is looking in the dictionary for words to describe our renowned art teacher.

Looks like a rousing game of "follow-the-leader" for Mr. Capelouto, Mrs. Rhodes, and Mr. Guldberg. Off to the library so Mrs. Rhodes can show you all those wonderful new books we are getting this year.

Iowa tests again! Miss Clark and Mrs. Webb appear not to mind them, but students went limp with exhaustion from so much mental exercise.

Happy day! That's pay day! If Mr. Means and Mr. Gallina hurry and get their checks from Mrs. Quinn they can just make it to the bank before closing time.

"No, Mrs. Ton, you cannot have another girl to type for the EL MOLINO!" Relax, Mrs. McDannel, you are fighting a losing battle. May as well give up graciously. The book must come out.

Aspirins, anybody? Meet Mrs. Lucey and Miss Jackson, custodians of aches and pains at HHS. These two nurses hear many tales of woe throughout the day. They are now experts at weeding out the real from the imagined!

Every Student At Hawthorne

As students become acquainted with the various teachers, they realize that there is much competent advice and guidance here; help in adjustng to the varying moods one must face in life. Book knowledge plus "living" knowledge are invaluable gifts from our instructors.

Has Many Opportunities To Learn

All right now, get in step! Miss Dykton and Mrs. Duffy's attempts to teach Miss Mondon the cha-cha-cha are doomed to failure. Miss Mondon seems to be going crazy; Miss Dykton has gone Hollywood; and Mrs. Duffy really doesn't care. "This is a helmet. It has many uses, such as throwing it at an opponent or substituting it as a water bucket." Coach Chauncey explains some of the important aspects of football to the new head varsity mentor Otto Plum.

Those eager smiles of anticipation on the faces of Mrs. Jensen and Mr. Orrell could mean only one thing—coffee time! Make it quick; your classes await your return. Mr. Husted and Miss Corcoran seem completely oblivious to the company on the other side of the car. In fact, Miss C appears to be dozing. On the other hand, Mr. Mordaunt and Miss Zalowski are anxious to break away from the everyday classroom routine and take a ride in that sleek Jaguar. Who wouldn't?

Don't be alarmed, Mr. Grahamer, it's only a camera. Keep right on singing the praises of HHS. Mrs. Bachman and Mr. Chapman will help.

These Are The Instructors

Mr. Brown and Mr. Elmore both bid the same price on the picture of the human eye being exhibited by Miss Pinchot. Fighting it out with T-squares was the only way to settle the problem. We're betting on Mr. Brown. Look at that dead serious expression.

Are they both taking her to lunch? Miss Likins doesn't seem to mind the idea as she strolls arm in arm with Mr. Gaier and Mr. Kasten. Ah, such is the type of "togetherness" we have at Hawthorne High!

Mr. Fields and Mrs. Reed seem eager to get to that latest material for the new reading lab. Some of the stories are very funny indeed! No wonder HHS students are becoming such avid readers. Hawthorne can truly be proud of its unique reading lab, something most schools do not have.

And Workers

Smile, please! Our shutter-clicking photographer happened to catch four of our favorite "boys" together. Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Ashley, Mr. Barton, and Mr. Halladay share an afternoon recess. Enjoy it; there's a faculty meeting coming up soon!

Mr. Trent, Mr. Semon, and Mr. Muirhead have taken time off to visit Mrs. Chadwick's advanced Biology class because they heard about the experiment on the care and feeding of rats. They especially wanted to check on the welfare of the two rats named Mr. Repashy and Mr. Husted.

And here is proof that learning at Hawthorne High is a happy experience. Mr. Edwards' Senior Problems class reflects a gay mood. Could it be they all received A's on their mid-term exams?

Whom We

CUSTODIAL STAFF: Row 1: D. Mahan, T. Clark, J. Pistono, I. Head, J. Hill, R. Macias, H. Hill. Row 2: L. Steele, G. Hoffman, C. Fehlman, G. Metzler, C. Heroux, F. Knerr, J. Wilson, M. Skaggs, H. CAFETERIA STAFF: Row 1: Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Trousdale, Mrs. Jillette, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Barnwell. Row 2: Mrs. Connick, Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Golden, Mrs. Nealson, Mrs. Janda.

Everyone in the office eventually takes a turn at the switchboard, but chief operator is Mrs. Shirley Wilson, new at HHS this year. "Old timers" Mrs. Linstruth, counseling office; Mrs. Ashby, textbook room; and Miss Murray, vice-principal's office, welcome her aboard.

Will Always Remember

Caught you in the act, Mrs. Collins. You and your cohorts, Miss Ratcliff and Mrs. Fairbanks better get away from the vault. The deputy sheriff on duty might not understand! You can tell that it is late in the day and almost quitting time, for that is the only time that the Attendance Office is ever this quiet. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Novotny finish those last minute jobs before clocking out. See you at eight tomorrow morning! You won't be so unoccupied then!

One of the real veterans of Hawthorne High School is Mrs. Anna Plaster, cafeteria supervisor. She has watched our growth from small to large school and has showed unfailing interest in the welfare of our students. Hats off to Mrs. Plaster for a job well done.

Its been a lot of fun this year, and I hope we do next year.

FIRST SEMESTER SENIOR CLASS CABINET — Susan LeDonne, Historian; Howard Treloar, Vice President; Keith Lent, President; Shoreen Hotchkiss, Secretary; (Not Shown) Irene Callahan, Treasurer.

The Senior Class of 1960 will long remember the many hours spent in work, study, and fun together. Now four wonderful years have passed, and it is time for a last look at some outstanding memories—car washes, sales, Class Day, the Prom, dances, Senioir Day at Disneyland, an exciting Bay League football championship, tests, classroom discussions, assemblies—all memories. And most of all we remember the warm friendships which will last for many years to come.

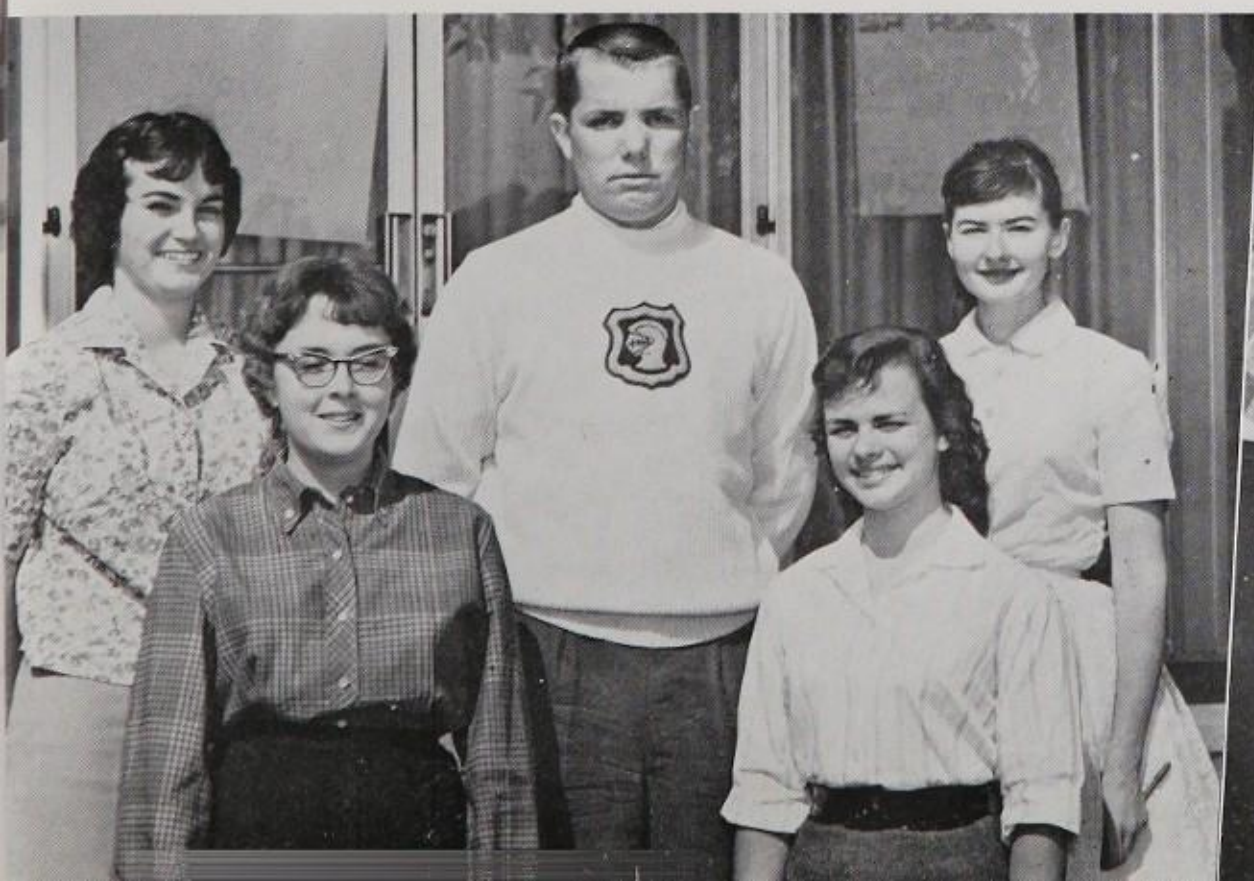
And now it is farewell to Hawthorne High School. A nostalgic mood settles over the senior class as we say goodbye and make a silent pledge to use our knowledge gained to become good citizens and to give service to our community, state, and nation.

SECOND SEMESTER SENIOR CLASS CABINET—Karen Zirbel, Vice President; Karen Myhre, Historian; Steve Andersen, President; Michele Cary, Treasurer; Linda Stoddard, Secretary.



"Please buy our candy. The senior class always needs money!" So pleads Irene Callahan, keeper of the treasury. Her entreaties were not in vain. The class treasury profited, and everyone benefited.

All hail the Vikings! Skits such as the incomparable mimicry of the Samohi Vikings, performed by Royal Lord, Bobby Hunter, Jerry Daquila, Mike Wood, and Al Geverink, were always hits at pep rallies. And what an opportunity it gave these hams to perform!

Speaking of hams, get a load of these rejects from the Town Hall Party! Promoting the sale of EL MOLINOS was the main objective in the minds of Penny Ashby, Karen Zirbel, Linda Hoffman, Lorraine Churik, Cindy Trotter, and Karen Darnelle. We don't know how many books they sold, but we do know of several TV offers they received as a result of their tremendous acting.

Class Day again and more hats. This garb might hamper tennis a bit, but class was probably more interesting that day! Mary Prodin and Valerie Jones argue the merits of the various announcements with Sherre McClain, Faith Abraham, and Bettie Lance. Argue all you want, girls; the important thing is that it is time to order announcements!

Look who's here! Our pretty little foreign exchange student Zafer Cetinkaya, who has come all the way from Turkey to be our Honorary Princess. Zafer would be an asset to any queen's court. Welcome to Hawthorne!

Cougars

Cougars found fun and entertainment far and near—in the classroom, at the car washes, assemblies, at the beach, on trips to San Diego—all occasions which are now fond memories.

Juniors! Juniors! And More

Assembly line production at the switchboard. Mrs. Ashby presides over the PTA News Bulletin, aided and abetted by many students who are only too eager to substitute this for classroom procedure.

Juniors are a jaunty group of campus wheels. Freed from the status of underclassmen, they seem to branch out socially and are noted for their liveliness. The Prom was the big event of their year, but they also voted on class sweaters, planned sales, dreamed of making money for future events; and, throughout it all, thoroughly enjoyed being upperclassmen.

Meet The Class Of '61

Juniors too entered into the spirit of Class Day. Their theme was Hawaiian, and the colorful garb donned by some of the Class of '61 truly brightened the day. No wonder dark glasses became standard equipment.

Ever Lively

PHYLLIS KIRKPATRICK
Sophomore Class President
First Semester

FIRST SEMESTER SOPHOMORE CLASS CABINET—Carol Wickwire, Vice President; Phyllis Kirkpatrick, President; Donna Smith, Secretary; Judy Liber, Historian; (Not Shown) Linda McDowell, Treasurer.

Voting is an important privilege at HHS so Cappy Poore takes advantage of his opportunity to cast a vote for his favorite candidate. Sue Smith keeps a watchful eye to make sure no one stuffs the ballot box!

CAROL WICKWIRE
Sophomore Class President
Second Semester

Sales and noon dances were the specialty of the Class of '62. Important business included voting on Junior rings, as the Sophs looked forward to becoming upperclassmen. A sophomore class swimming party was held for the first time in the history of HHS, and the energetic second yearmen even started plans for next year. Beginning in September they will sell rooter buttons to avid football fans.

SECOND SEMESTER SOPHOMORE CLASS CABINET— Joan Munn, Treasurer; Susan Lively, Vice President; Carol Wickwire, President; Judy Crawford, Historian; Mary Dalbotten, Secretary.

Seven minutes between classes and lots of distance to cover. But the leisurely pace of these Cougars indicate that they are not alarmed by the passage of time. Classes will wait!

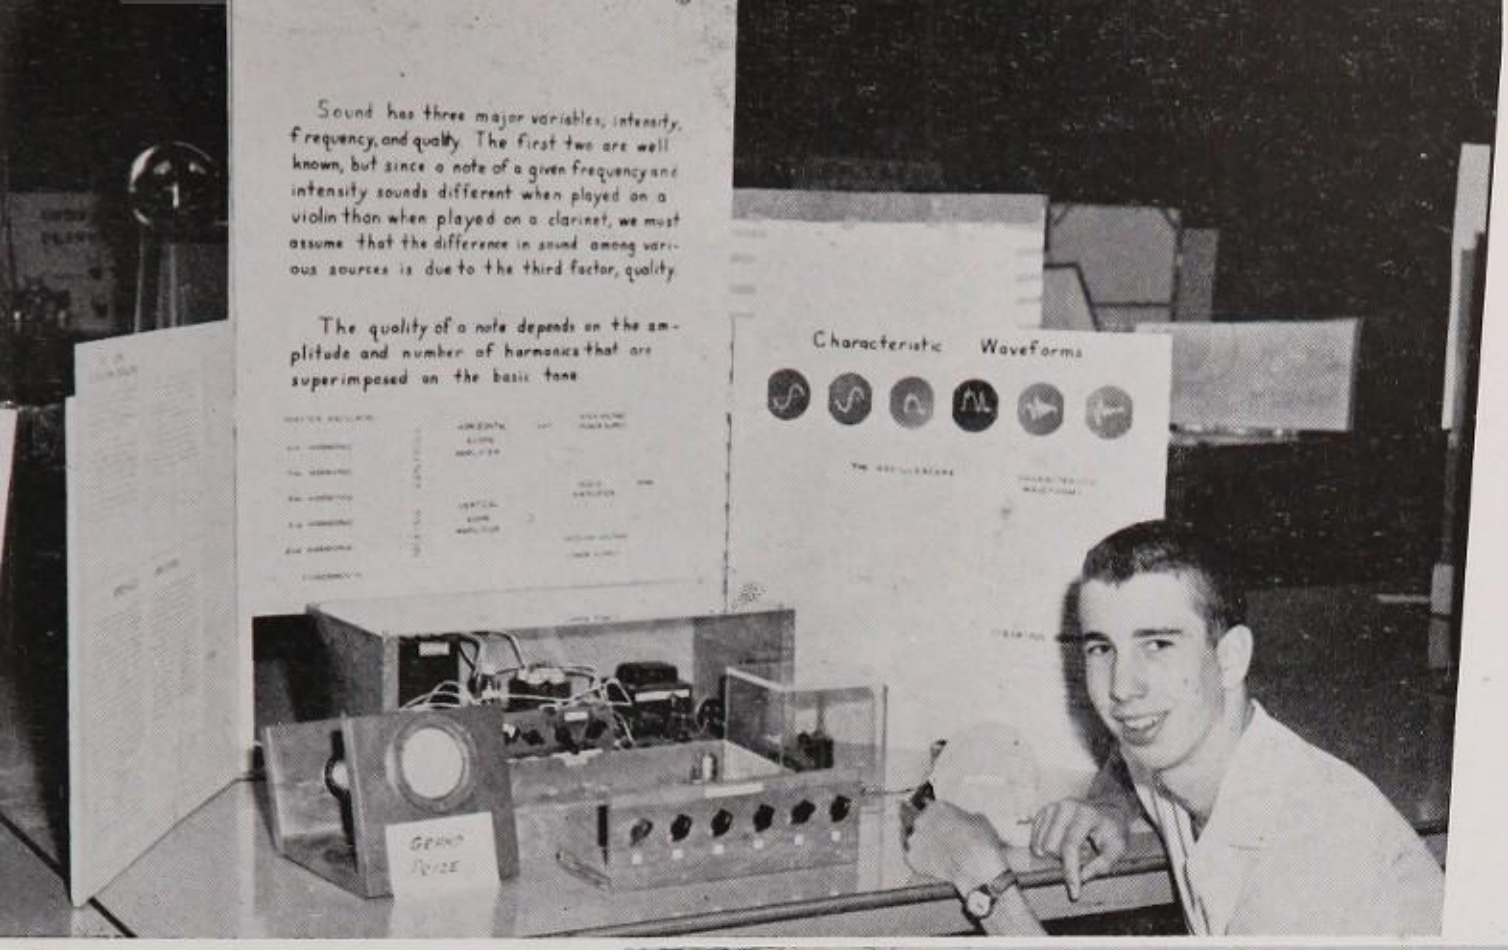
A Cheerful Mood Predominates,

Food! Food! These are the cries of the impatient lunch brigades. What's the main dish, Mrs. Plaster? Never mind, just give us food. Eating is big business at Cougarville.



Sound has three major variables, intensity, frequency, and quality. The first two are well known, but since a note of a given frequency and intensity sounds different when played on a violin than when played on a clarinet, we must assume that the difference in sound among various sources is due to the third factor, quality.
The quality of a note depends on the amplitude and number of harmonics that are superimposed on the basic tone

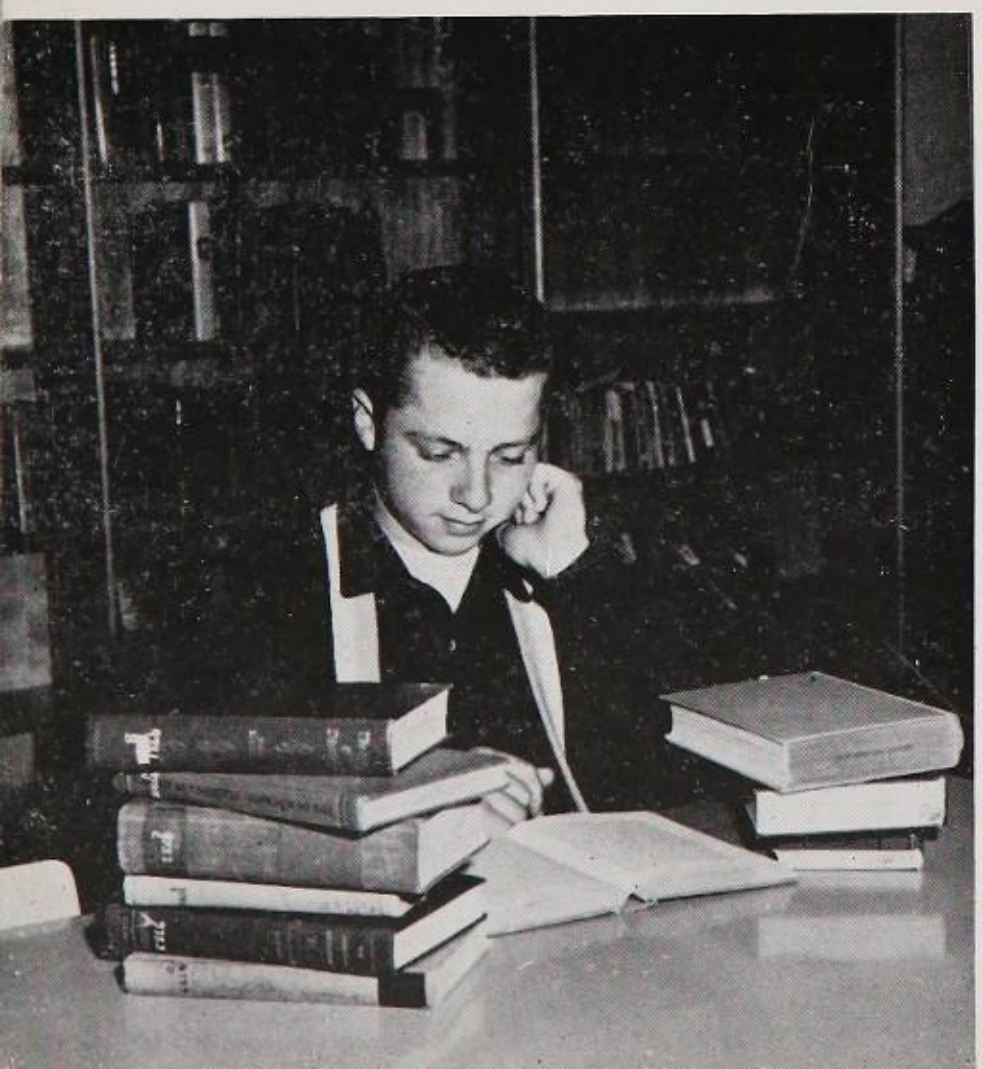
Confused And Bewildered

FIRST SEMESTER FRESHMAN CLASS CABINET—Anna Lou Snapp, Historian; Ron Peterson, Vice-President; Don Ray, President; Bonnie Sutton, Secretary; Susan Donahue, Treasurer. The freshman vote was a very important one on campus, for this is the largest class at Hawthorne. Ambitious politicians make sure the freshmen know what is going on.



Breaking into the new and exciting routine of getting acquainted, supporting elections, and raising money was all a part of the freshman year at Cougarville.

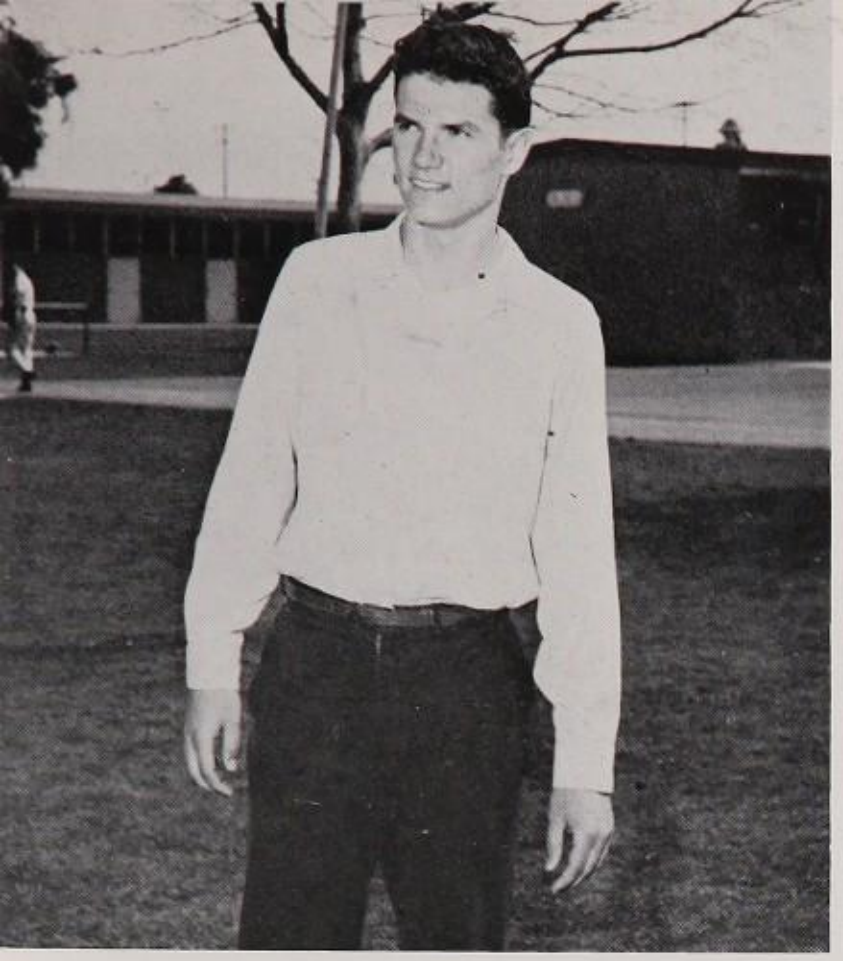
Spirited Rivalry

These are familiar faces. John Blankenship is found anywhere there is service to be rendered. Dean Stafford successfully combined sports and student government. Dean knew his procedures in Senate just as smoothly as on the gridiron. Steve Anderson is another athlete who made good as a politician. His leadership brought about one of the best semesters ever known in the House of Representatives, while his successor Howard Treloar stepped in without a hitch to keep the House functioning at a high level of achievement.



HOWARD TRELOAR

Every Morning

The Senators and Representatives also displayed moods as they performed their daily responsibilities. There was the solemn mood of defeat when Sports Night ceased to fulfill its intended purpose. The continued success of after game dances brought a buoyant mood and inner glow to its builders. There was always work to be done, whatever the mood. And the student government groups always rose to every challenge.

Is The Keynote

The Senate and the House sponsored a great variety of activities for the student body, among which was the first Club Charter assembly. At this time the famous quartette of Barrows, Wilson, Lent, and Griffin made its first and last public appearance! Faculty cheer leaders Morgan and Mondon perform at the annual Varsity-Faculty basketball game.

The student body officers pictured here were the choice of the voters, picked in a democratic election at the polls. They attended Bay League Conferences, CASC conventions, revised the constitution, worked on the student handbook, and participated in the many other activities that are an integral part of student government. These leaders have worked efficiently in the name of student government and in return have enjoyed a fruitful year.

Struggle With

A typical energetic mood is portrayed in this scene with super salesman Mike Lord. Diane Mykkanen doesn't seem too sure of the product, but Mike will sell it anyway. Bills must be paid, you know.

Vice President Daquila presides at one of the lively pep rallies, which marked the highly successful football season. Cougar fans will never forget our first year in the Bay League. The camera catches a rare moment of seriousness as first semester Student Body President John Blankenship turns over his gavel and his many responsibilities to successor Dean Stafford. Penny Ashby, slightly overcome by the solemnity of the occasion, vainly tried to understand those "big words" in the HHS constitution.

Second Semester

Here are the girls! Under the capable leadership of prexies Diana Baime and Carol Erickson, the Girls' League successfully sponsored the Father-Daughter Banquet, the Baby Sister Party for the incoming freshman girls, assemblies, fashion shows, and a special farewell event honoring the senior femmes. They welcomed new girls to campus, worked for the Red Cross, did welfare work, attended conferences, and had energy left over to meet every Tuesday morning at 7:55. All hail the girls!

Cindy Sullivan, Sherre McClain, and Linda Moon modeled hair styles in the Girls' League Fashion Show, the first big event of the year for the League. Smiling faces at the Father-Daughter Banquet as the girls and their dads hear about big game hunting in Africa.

FIRST SEMESTER GIRLS' LEAGUE OFFICERS— Row 1: Sherre McClain, Recording Secretary; Diana Baime, President; Carol Erickson, Vice President; Sharon Jokela, Historian. Row 2: Lucy Wolfe, Corresponding Secretary; Illene Hill, Treasurer; Zafer Cetinkaya, Honorary Member.

President Carol Erickson welcomes Mr. Harvey Cheesman to the Father-Daughter Banquet. The interesting speaker told of his travels in Africa.

SECOND SEMESTER GIRLS' LEAGUE OFFICERS— Row 1: Nadine Hollingsworth, Corresponding Secretary; Carol Erickson, President; Sherre McClain, Vice President; Sharon Jokela, Historian. Row 2: Vickie Green, Recording Secretary; Bettie Fellows, Treasurer; Zafer Cetinkaya, Honorary Member.

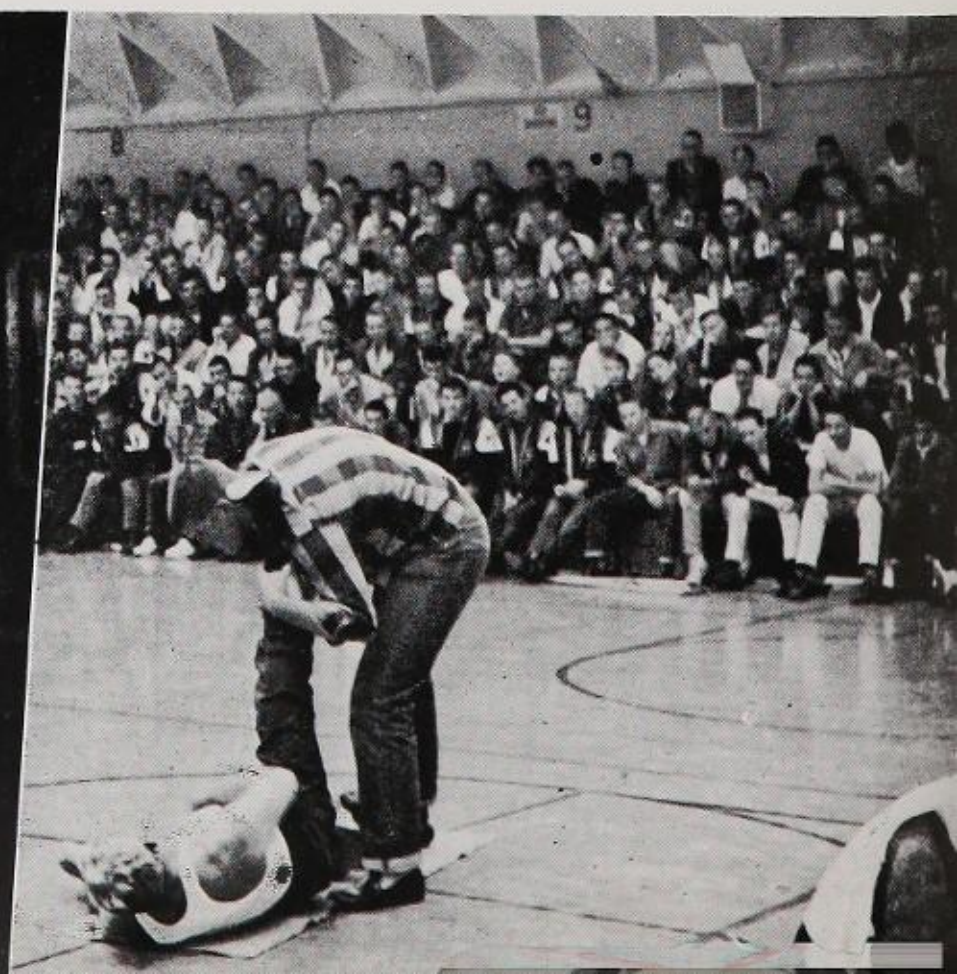
And Here Are The Boys!

Major event presented by the Boys' League this year was a wrestling demonstration by Bert Shurtliff, noted wrestler, author, and lecturer. On the more serious side was the collection of funds for charity. Much time was spent on organizational details in an attempt to set the League up on a firmer basis for next year.

President Mike Lord introduces wrestler Shurtliff to the males of Cougarville. Some of the more daring upperclassmen rose to challenge the visitor, but they met defeat. Among the vanquished was "Big Boy" Monte Horton.



Wow!

"Santa Catalina"—and the 4 Preps swing out with happy music for receptive listeners. This was a high spot in a busy year, and set a gay mood on campus for both teachers and students.

Clubs, clubs, clubs. Big ones, little ones. Fun clubs, service clubs, hobby clubs. They all served the purpose of providing useful and creative activity for HHS students. Clubs are open to anyone who wishes to join, and every other Tuesday hums with activity when special club schedules are run and hundreds of students are busy attending meetings.

The varsity and the faculty are at it again! HHS basketeers keep hoping they can beat the "old men", but such hardwood artists as Coach Haueter and Mr. Ormondroyd put the jinx on them again this year. Too bad, youngsters. Keep trying.

Interesting

JUNIOR RED CROSS — First Semester Chairman Lucy Wolfe, Second Semester Chairman Diana Baime.

Clubs at Hawthorne High ranged from the welfare organizations such as Junior Red Cross to the athletic clubs. The B Club, composed of athletes who have earned their letters in B sports, is one of the oldest organizations on campus. The Junior Red Cross, which started last year has made rapid progress toward becoming a very active group. It is a welcome addition to the world of clubs of HHS.

Happy

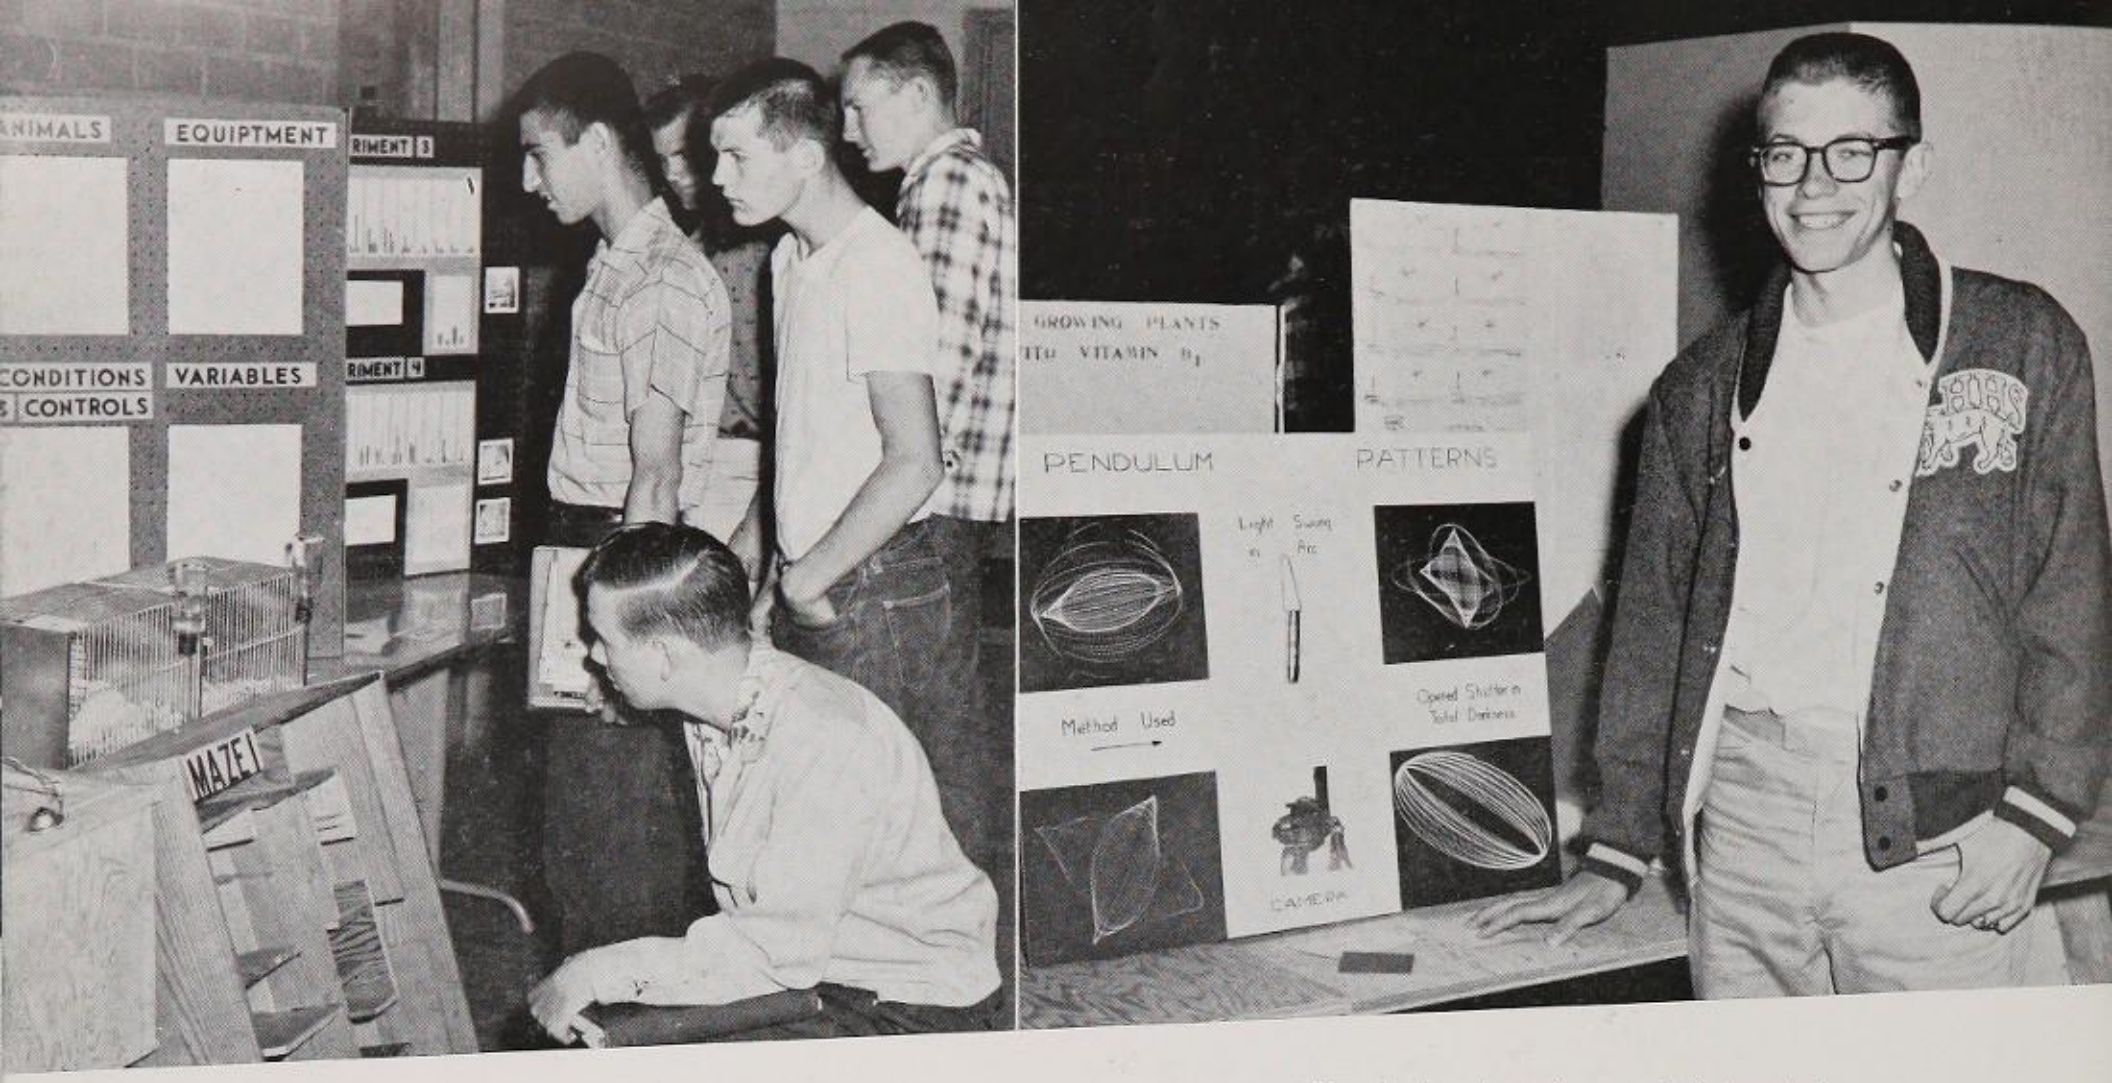
"No room at the top!" Karen Darnelle tries to join Cindy Trotter and Linda Crow in their unique resting place, as Karen Zirbel, Lorraine Churik, and Theresa Kara watch. Such antics as these depict the frantic mood that prevailed in 9-4 during those final deadline days, before the EL MOLINO went to press. Linda Ramirez, Pat Bell, Michele Cary, Carol Mountain, Carol Hess, and Glenda Cook storm the telephone booth awaiting that all important call telling them that the EL MOLINOS are ready for distribution.

The sole aim of the 1960 EL MOLINO staff was to give Hawthorne the most unique annual in the school's history. Brainstorming sessions brought forth many unusual plans: sell more yearbooks by giving a T Bird with each book; have 8x10 portraits of each senior; offer 300 pages of living color! But dreams couldn't get the book out, so the staff chose the theme of "Moods" and settled down to the routine job of producing an annual. Although many of our brainstorms had to be discarded, we feel that we have produced a book worthy of the pride which we take in presenting it to you.

"They'll buy an ad or else we won't give 'em any protection!" Off go Mary Prodin and Linda Moon to sell more EL MOLINO ads. Norma McCutcheon, Elsie Johnson, and Sharon Luberacki sort pictures, dozens of pictures. Better trim them fast before someone decides to re-shuffle them!

Day! The Annual Is Finished!

EL MOLINO press cards are produced by Carol Ferges, Janet Haynes, and Terry Miller to prove to Mrs. Allen that they have the right to use the school phone. After all, we must schedule those advertising pictures! Yippee! No more identification photos to do! Janet Ashby, Kathy Brand, and Nadine Hollingsworth go into a slight state of delirium at this happy news. And speaking of pictures, there are always schedules to be made out. And then there are always re-schedules to be done. Gail Thomas, Susan LeDonne, and Carol MacDonald get down to business organizing class and club pictures. "But, Mr. Williams, we're talking about the division pages, not the title page. There is a difference, you know!" Patiently art editors Penny Ashby and Linda Hoffman go over their problems with Mr. Williams, who secretly wishes he were off somewhere with the Fencing Club.



Hundreds of curious and interested parents and students toured the annual Science Fair, one of the outstanding events of any year at HHS.

The Future

The entire student body and community looks forward to the Science Fair, the big activity of the Science Club each year. This is a useful, educational, and fascinating picture of what can be accomplished by close cooperation among club members, science classes, teachers, and community leaders.

Hawthorne High is proud of its academic record and the students who set this high scholastic pace. The Scholarship Society represents the cream of the intellectual crop. We salute their achievement, with special congratulations to Valedictorian Ron Patterson and Salutatorian Diane Barthle.

These are the Scholars

Scholars they may be, but they have fun too! Beach parties were on the busy agenda of the Scholarship Society, as well as special programs featuring HHS grads now in college. One of the outstanding programs of the year was Dr. Garner's presentation of the Sealbearer Certificates. Congratulations!

Like crazy, man! Cool cat Mike Scott tries to convince a highly dubious Les Moss that his poetry is the most! Actually Mike is just doing an impersonation, but it looked real at first.

Varsity clubbers are talented indeed. They appeared at almost every assembly this year, doing everything from tripping the light fantastic to impersonating the Samohi Vikings.

ART SERVICE — Russ Jacobsen, Bruce Hoover, Genie Dugan, Jerry Johnson, and Dean Stafford dream up new ideas for dance decorations.

Occasion

Dances, installation banquets, posters and props for all events on campus, farewell dinner decorations, settings for the Modern Dance Program—these were a few of the things which occupied the time of the Art Service group. Little wonder they are known as one of the busiest organizations on campus. HHS couldn't do without them.

ART SERVICE — Glenola Weatherman, Judy Bolling, Pat Bernard, Kerry Dodd, and Milton Calkins pose for the EL MOLINO cameraman, as they take a break in their hectic schedule.

DIACONIANS — Row 1. J. Mote, P. Oravetz, L. Churik, P. Ashby, J. Ashby, M. Flintham. Row 2: C. Elger, S. Olney, R. Pritchard, C. Trenkle, T. Gerkin, V. LaFontaine, J. Kiester, C. Granucci. Row 3: J. Glenn, P. Adams, K. Brand, C. Benson, C. Newcomb, M. Acosta, S. Hall, I. Hill.

Diaconians At Your Service

Gaily bedecked in their Dad's Club aprons, the Diaconians were seen serving at banquets for every occasion. Outfitted in uniforms from formals to club sweaters and ushering at gatherings from concerts to assemblies, the active HHS honorary club carried out their motto: "At Your Service."

Under the leadership of President Janet Ashby, Vice President Rickki Pritchard, Secretary Carol Trenkle, Treasurer Kathy Brand, and Sergeant-at-Arms Judy Kiester, the Diaconians have had one of their best years. President Janet Ashby participates in the club charter assembly, at which time all official clubs were given their charters by the student body.

One of the most hilarious demonstrations ever seen on campus was provided by the Fencing Club, when they presented their version of "movie fencing." The gym rang with their challenges, the course of true love was anything but smooth, and the laughter was tribute to their showmanship.

If It's

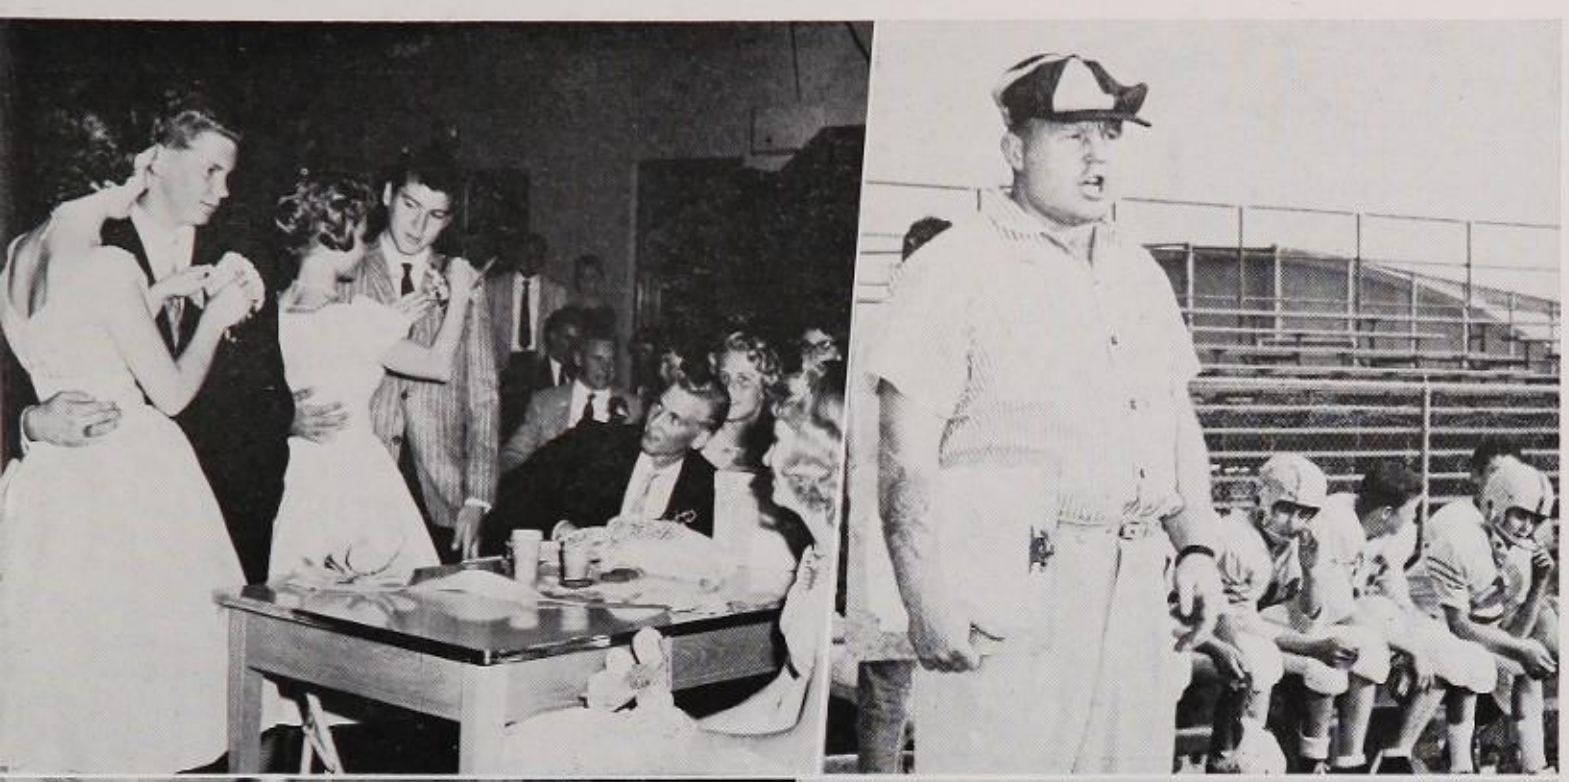
Every Friday sees the COUGAR staff taking "helpful hints" from a perturbed student body. You can't please everyone! But how does the week begin? Monday the eager staff stands by ready for assignments. Tuesday they sit down to think of excuses for Monday's unfinished jobs. Wednesday is a day of dilemma, how to get all the work done; Thursday a day of rest to get ready to accept the old familiar cries, "That's not the way you spell my name . . . " or "You should have included the part about the . . ." Yet the COUGAR always comes out, even boasting several special editions during the year. And it always manages to maintain its high standard, thanks to Miss McGinty and her hardworking staff.

Three individuals with but a single thought on their minds, how to make each issue of the COUGAR better than the last. First semester editor Jim Isadore insisted on that "different look", while Jean Robertson, who guided the destinies of the staff the second half of the year, worked hard to achieve a high level literary style. Whatever their goals, Miss McGinty was always ready with a helping hand.

News We Print It!



THE COUGAR is the voice of the campus, reporting all noteworthy events from dances to athletic contests. Louder, Coach Halladay, you're not coming through loud and clear.

Long suffering linotype artists worked feverishly to get out the paper, while equally long suffering football players worked diligently for victory.

Student body campaigns get enthusiastic coverage in the COUGAR, adding to the excitement of the occasion.

A spirited Russian dance by the Modern Dance group provided action, color, and an unusual touch to the Club Charter assembly.

Dancers

Poised and sophisticated, girls from the Business Education Department board the bus to attend the annual Business Day.

Modern dance came into its own this year. They performed at noon programs, at assemblies, for the community, and staged a very successful dance recital in May. Whether doing Indian dances in authentic costumes or bouncing on the trampoline dressed as clowns, these hardworking students were always spectacular.

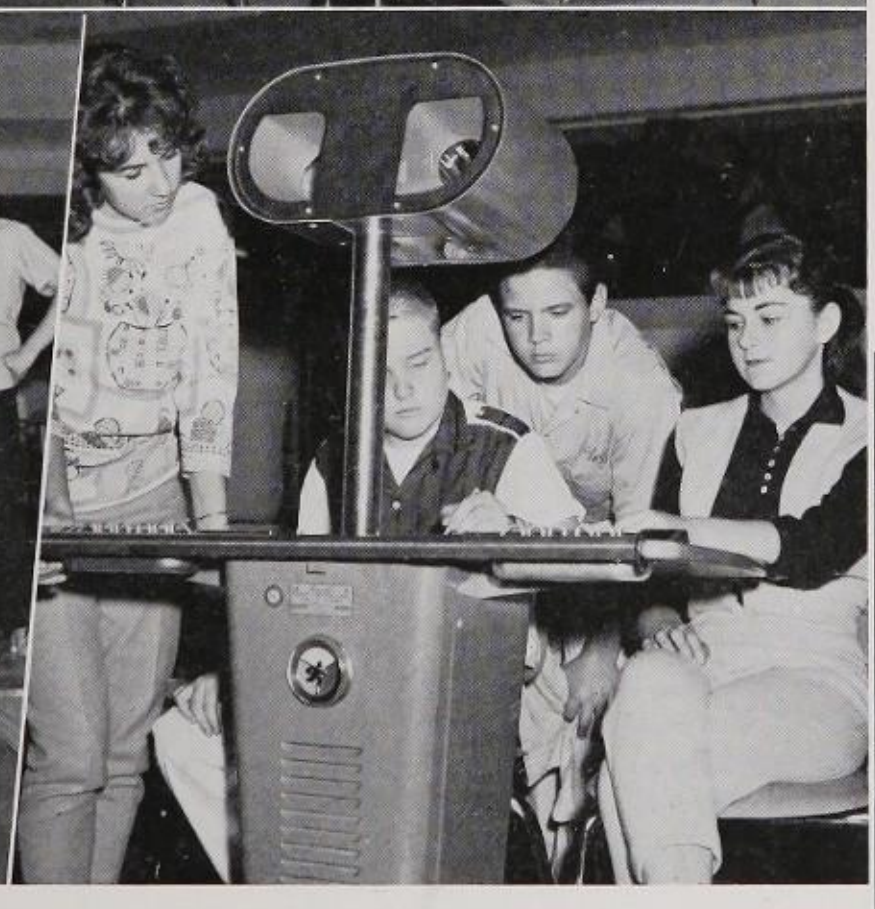
Richards, P. Bitney, J. Sunshine, D. Register, C. Weatherly, C. Miller, S. Davis.

"It's a strike" . . . "Oh, no, not another split" . . . these were typical exclamations heard from the ambitious members of the Bowling Club every Thursday afternoon as one of the biggest clubs on campus went into action at theTropicana Lanes. Principal event of the year for the bowlers was a rousing tournament to determine the club champions. Few groups on campus matched this one in spirit.

Bowlers Perry, Boll, and Crawford relax a moment before entering the stiff competition of the tournament sponsored by the club.

BOWLING CLUB: Row 1: T. Acrey, M. Watson, S. Weber, I. Eastin, D. Boll. Row 2: K. Brenholt, R. McGrew, D. Everett, K. Boll, J. Peppers, R. Smith. Row 3: C. Boenish, I. Caughron, H. Pritchard, B. Tully, J. Guerra, J. Baker, J. Crawford, J. Perry, T. Anders, T. Whitener, R. Eide.



And down she goes! But did she make the score? Judging from that look of utter disgust on her face, she didn't. Well, Sarah, pick yourself up and try again. The others are waiting to keep score for you. Don't disappoint them. Only Clarence Smith appears to be completely unperturbed by Sarah's sad state of affairs.

As a fitting climax to an exciting season, the Bowling Club awarded trophies to winners in the following categories: girls' and boys' high series, girls' and boys' individual high games, and to the three top teams. Mr. Repashy, sponsor, plans to spend the summer making a tour of the bowling alleys in his new Sprite.

We Build Lasting

The American Field Service is an international exchange program designed to promote the understanding of the social, political, and cultural differences among the nations of the world. The AFS sponsored two Backwards Dances, a pancake breakfast, and sold bonds during AFS Week in order to raise money to send a student overseas. This year we have welcomed Zafer Cetinkaya, a warm, bright-eyed Turkish girl, who came from magical Istanbul to charm her way into the hearts of HHS students. And from Santiago, Chile, comes Willie Alonzo, whose quick smile and appreciative nature has fast made him a favorite figure on campus. Hawthorne High will always remember these two, and our best wishes go with you, amigos.

Friendships

Bonds for sale! Bonds for sale! Help finance an exchange student. Bill Sphall, Frances McDowell, and Jim Gross, all finalists in the race to see who goes overseas from Hawthorne, pitch in to make the AFS program a reality.

AFS president Linda Stoddard crowns the royal pair at the April Fool's Dance sponsored by the AFS. Willie and Zafer aren't really leaving yet. Don't let that suitcase fool you. They are dressed in their native clothes to participate in the club assembly. But the entire student body will be sad when these two must leave. They have added much to our life at Hawthorne.

Court jester JimGross entertains the guests at tthe Backwards Dance. Quite a show, Jim!

Raise Cougar Spirits

Novel routines by the band and drill team created an even more intense atmosphere of excitement at each football game. The spontaneous response given these groups marked HHS Rooters as the most avid in the league.

One of the major half time activities during the grid season featured a salute to Victory Queen Pat Bell, crowned at the homecoming game. Football Captain Dean Stafford's Poly Jackrabbit routine was easily the best acting job of the year. Congratulations to Dean for a good job both on and off the field. Yell Leader Kathy Brand seems amused by her part in the festivities. Frankly, so are we!

The Gay World Of Business

The Sten-ettes Club is composed of business women of the future, who combine business with pleasure in their club activities. They learn about the newest and most modern equipment for office use, tour business offices, and pursue an active social life. Dinner at the Imperial Gardens, a theater party to view "Can Can" and a midnight snack at Blum's Restaurant were all included on their social calendar this year.

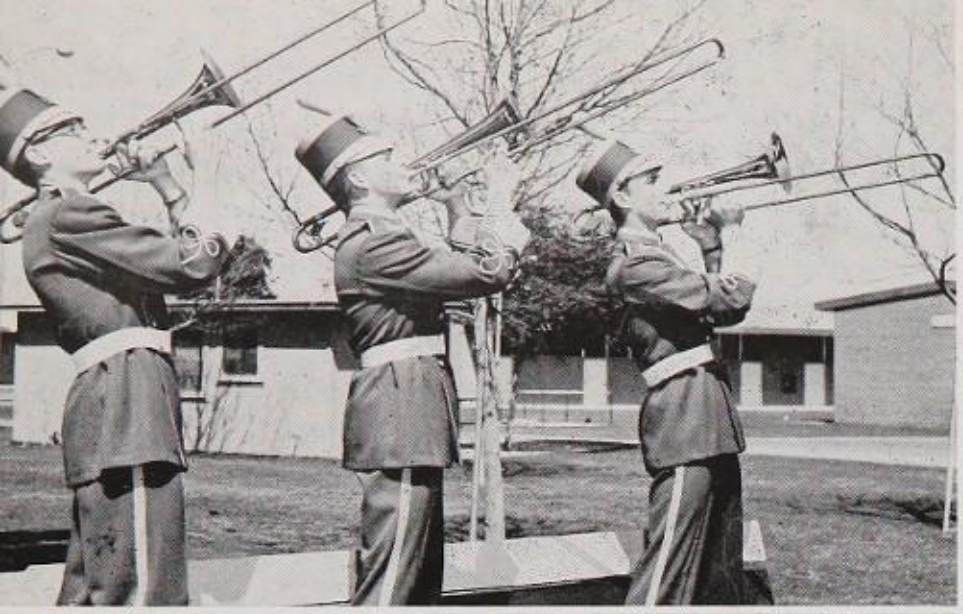
Music

Once again the Hawthorne High Band, under the competent direction of Mr. Fred Morgan, provided Cougars with a year of fine music. At 7 o'clock in the morning you could hear the strains of the Dance Band floating throughout the quiet campus. At 7:45 the Marching Band, with flag girls, banner carriers, and majorettes, took over, and the campus awakened to the beat of rousing marches. And, of course, no football game was complete without the band.

And here come the Cougars! Flag girls and standard bearers always lead the way, setting the pace for the colorful unit which follows.

Express Changing



It's not the famous 76 trombones, but these three did a fine job for the HHS band.

Um - pah - pah! German Band members D. Boesiger, J. Carnell, S. Clements, M. Gates, and M. Calkins are at it again! Poor Richard! Carrying that big bass drum and keeping in step at the same time is too much to ask of anyone.

That's not the Roger Wagner Chorale you hear; it's our very own A Cappella Choir tuning up for their next performance at the Pomona Fair. Choral groups brought recognition to Hawthorne High through their many public appearances both at school and in the community. Whatever the occasion and whatever kind of music was desired, you could count on the music department.

Moods

Led by Donna Upston, the high-stepping majorettes were a bright spot at the games and parades. Our thanks to Pat Larson, Suzanne Barton, and Penny Upston for their hard work this year.

Emerge Victorious

Before and after! A friendly handshake between captains before the CIF finals at the Coliseum; solemn faces as trophies are presented following the game.

Varsity coaches Otto Plum, Alex Bravo, Hal Chauncey, and Sid Semon—master minds behind the Bay League championship. Cougar rooters won't soon forget these men and this grid season. Football award winners: Stafford, most inspirational player; Hagethorn, best lineman; Jardine, most improved player; Hunter, most valuable and best back; Ragatz, most underrated player; Ruskit, best attitude.

They said it couldn't be done—the pre-season dopesters. But Coach Hal Chauncey and his fighting Cougars were used to chalking up victories, so they went right out and won the Bay League championship anyway. Teamwork was the keynote as the HHS gridders knocked down Lynwood 20-0, Inglewood 30-14, Leuzinger 32-13, Mira Costa 32-6, North High 15-6, Morningside 20-9, and Redondo 14-6, in one thrilling contest after another. And then came that memorable evening of November 21, when the Scarlet and Gold grid machine marched out and neatly jolted the highly touted Santa Monica Vikings out of their CIF day dreams, a rude awakening to the Vikes by an upstart Cinderella team that was supposed to place no better than 6th their first year in the Bay League.

Despite dire predictions that they would not go far in CIF competition, Hawthorne's perennial underdogs picked off the El Rancho Dons 25-20, and followed up the next week with a 9-7 victory over the Glendale Dynamiters. Their perfect season came to a close in the Los Angeles Coliseum on December 11, when the powerful Poly Jackrabbits from Long Beach copped their second straight CIF championship. But it was a great season for the Cougars and their thousands of rabid fans, who will never forget a moment of it.

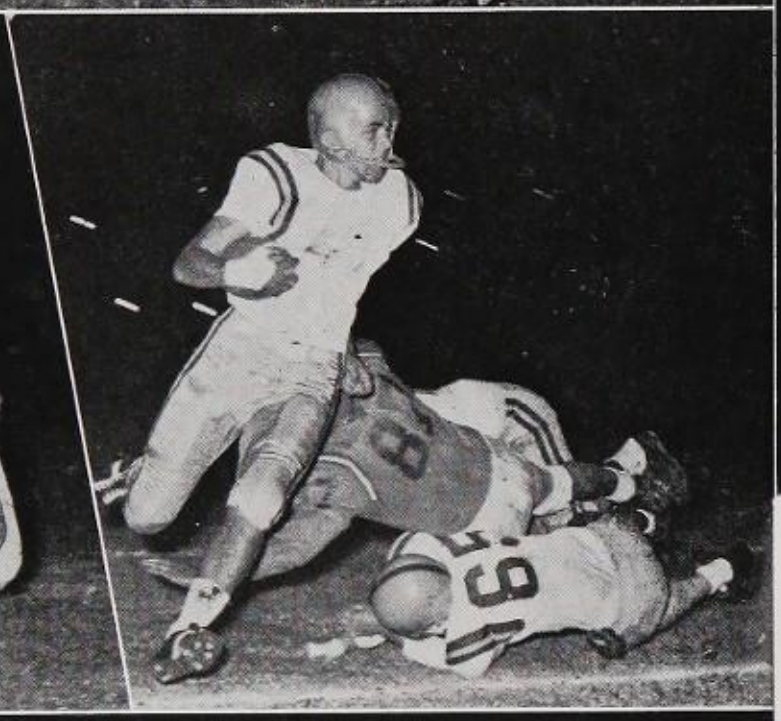
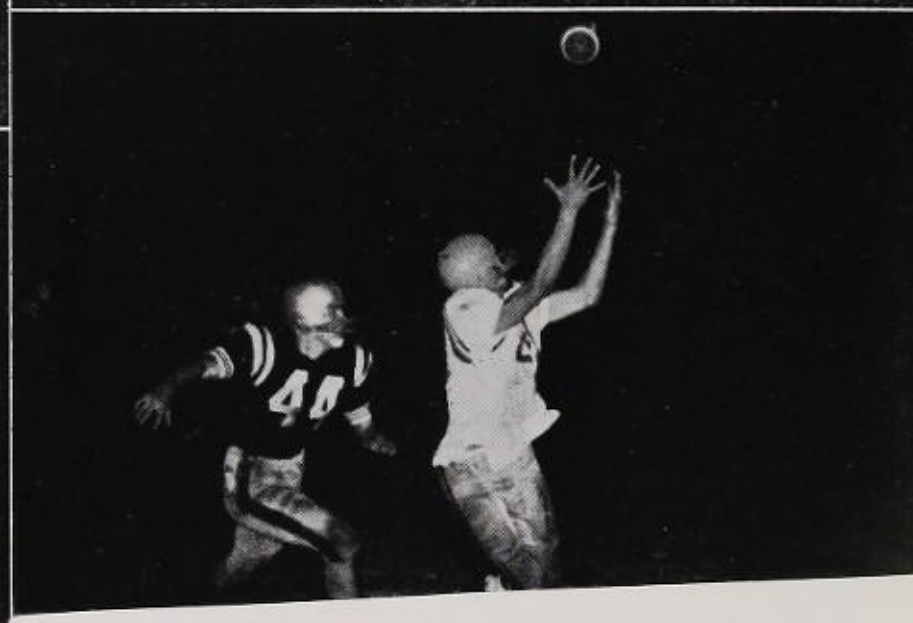
The 1959 season was a fitting tribute to veteran mentor Hal Chauncey who announced his retirement as head football coach just before the Samohi game. In his 9 years at the helm of the Cougar grid destinies, Chauncey has given us many wonderful seasons of exciting football thrills and chills, including 4 Pioneer League championships and one small school CIF crown. Life with Chauncey has been wonderful. Good luck, coach!

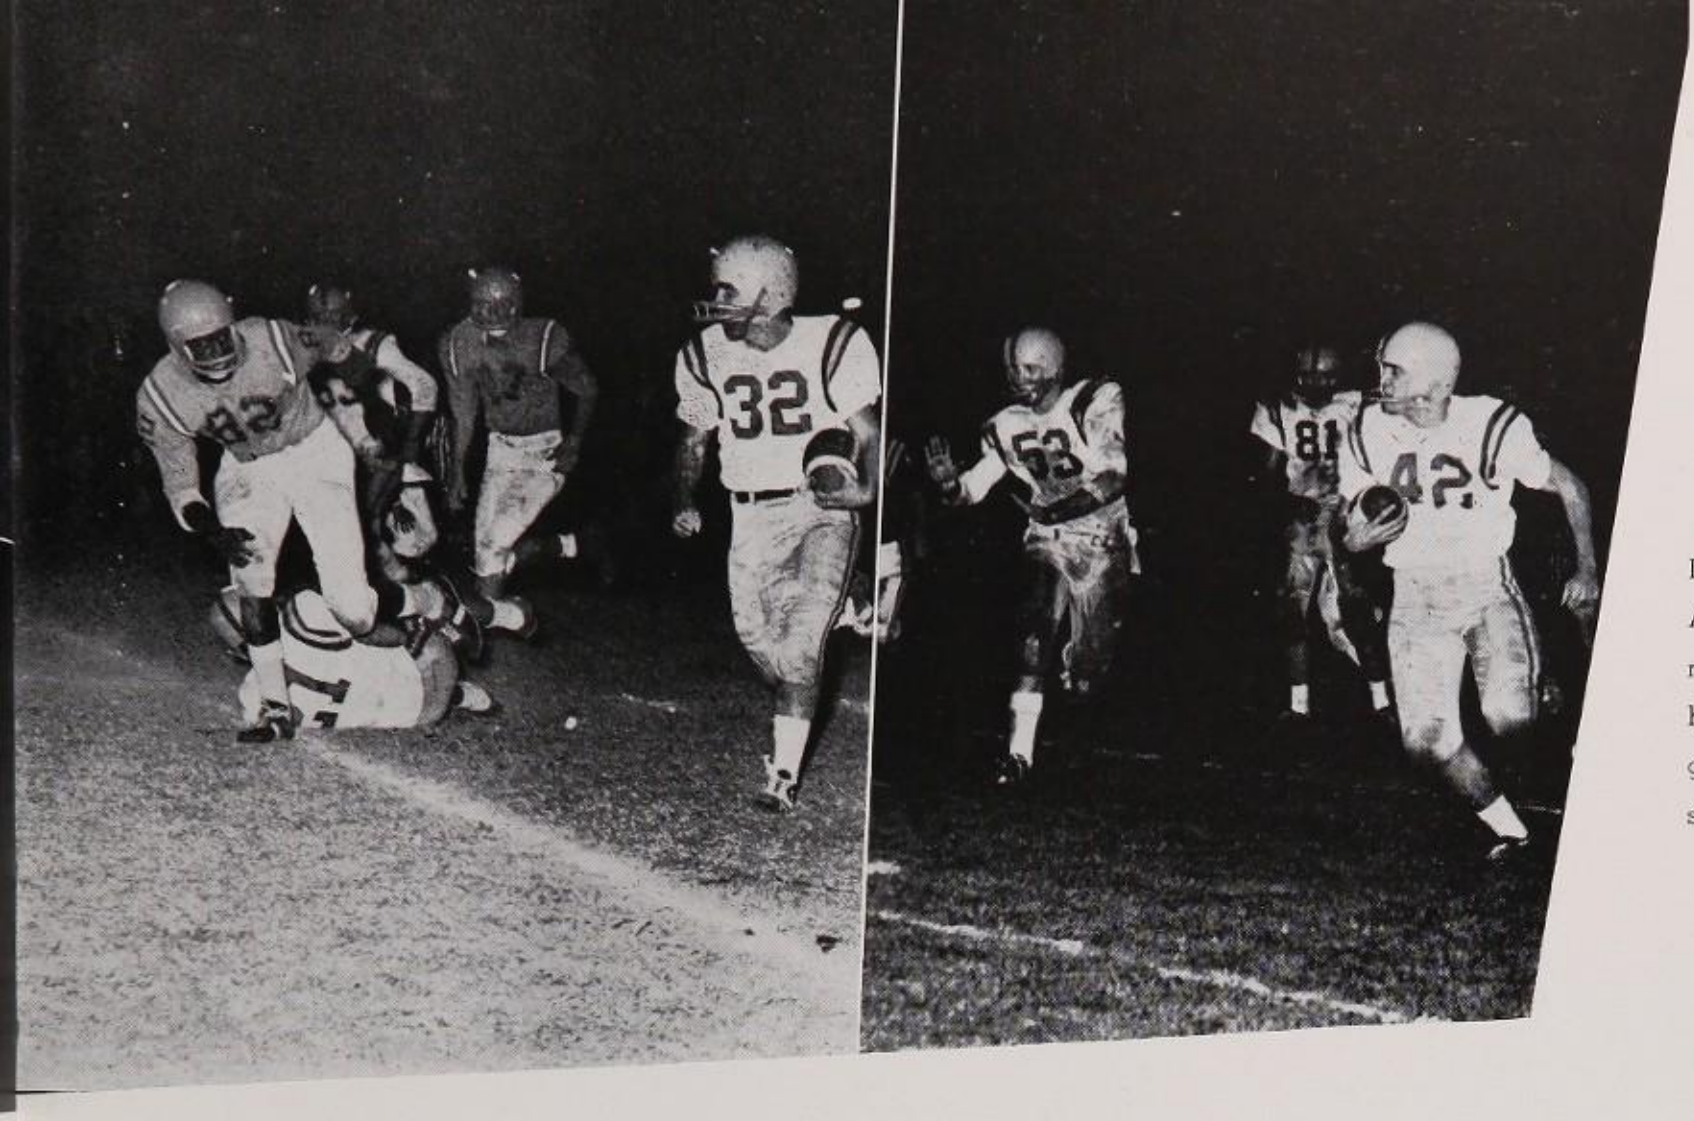




Reale carries the pigskin for a substantial gain as the Redondo Seahawks fall before the Cougar onslaught. Enockson snags a pass to help down the highly touted Monarchs from Morningside, pre-season Bay League favorites. Jerry Daquila speeds past the stunned Vikings, who were busy reading those "On to CIF" signs. Geverink goes 'way down to pick off a pass.

It's the Coliseum and the CIF finals against the Poly Jackrabbits. Holton carries in the toughest game ever played by any Cougar eleven.

Come to pappa! Jacobsen plucks the pigskin out of the air in the Micohi game. It was another Cougar victory. Quarterback Steve Andersen goes to work to ruin El Rancho's dreams of advancing to the CIF finals.



Diminutive Bob Hunter, All Bay League halfback, races through the Samohi line, while Fred Ragatz tries to dent the strong Poly defense.

The rampaging B gridders, perennially in contention for the championship, did it again this year in the Bay League. The Cougar babes won 7, losing only to the champs from North High. Team captains were "Moose" Butler, "Cuddles" Carpenter, Bill Lowe, and Neil Eldridge. Awards went to Bob Fitzgerald, best back; Carpenter, best lineman; Lowe, most inspirational; and Bill Shultz, most improved player. The C grid machine, under the tutelage of Coach Halladay, garnered 5 wins, suffered no losses, and tied 2 to place second in the league. Ken Umsted was chosen most valuable player; Steve Smith, most valuable back; Glen Pierce, most valuable lineman; and Bill Morris best tackler.

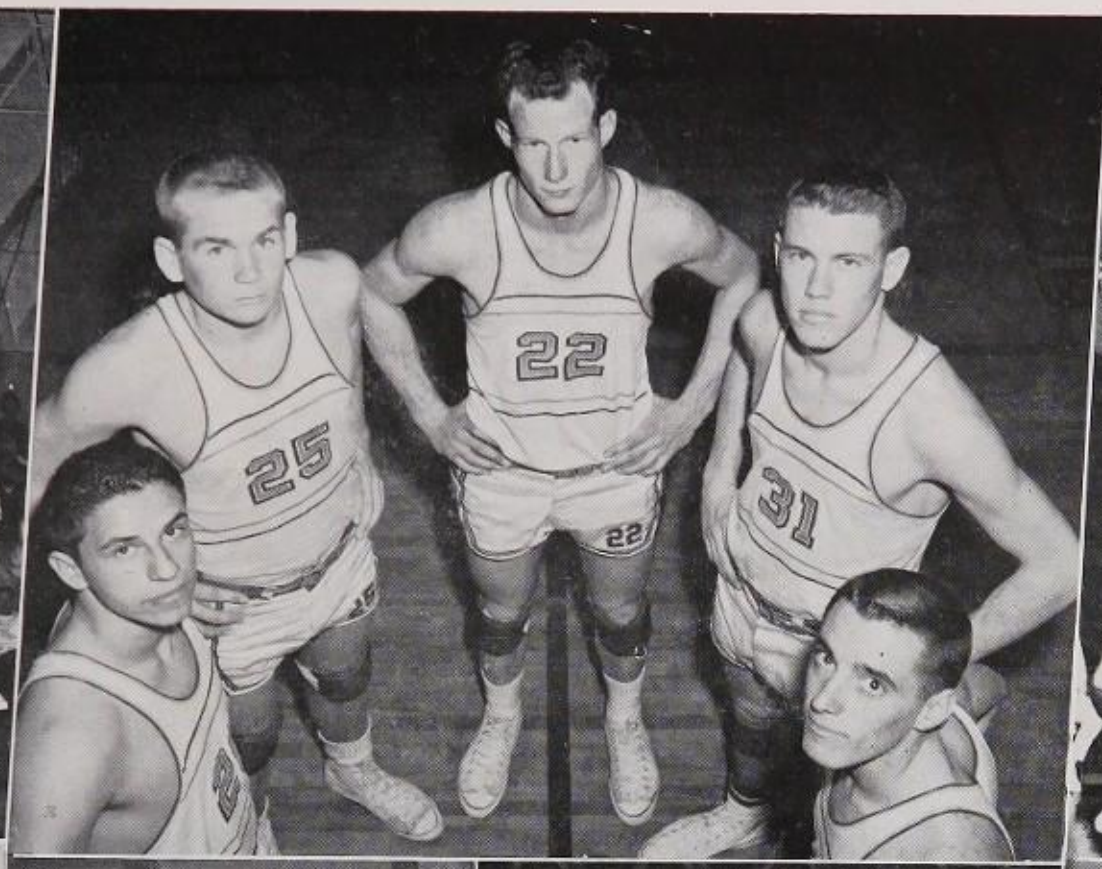
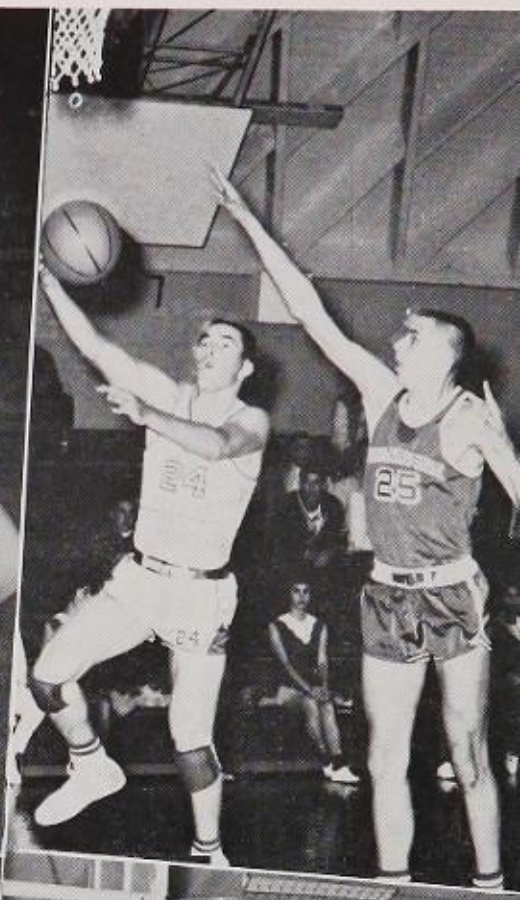
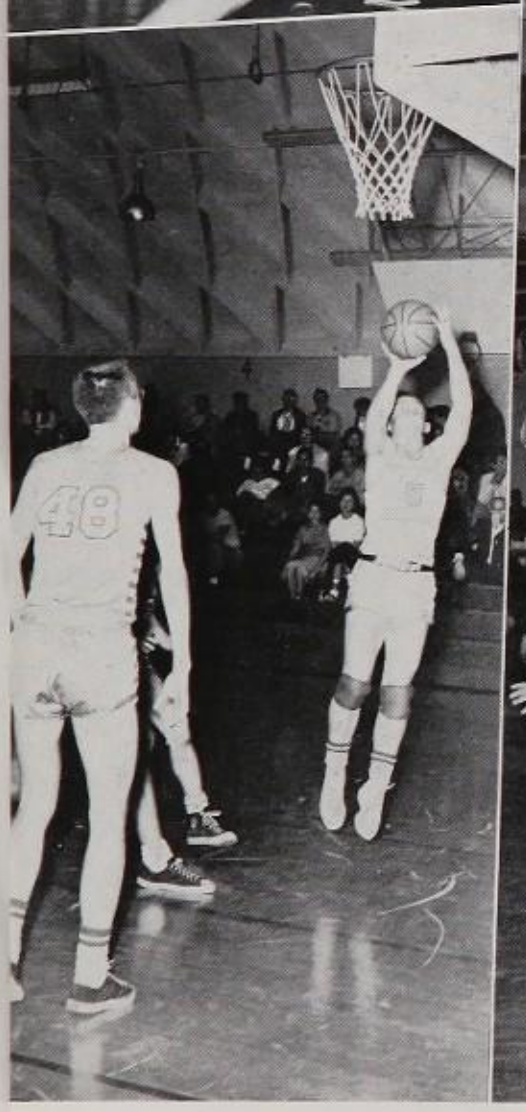
A win over arch rival Morningside was the high spot in the basketball season, as the varsity cagers ended their first year of Bay League competition in 6th place. High point man was Keith Lent, who also took honors as top rebounder. Close behind him in total points was Gary Mykkanen, with Gary Keierleber second in rebounds. At the close of the season the Cougs chose Keith Lent and Don Carroll as co-captains of the varsity squad; Lent was also chosen most valuable player, while Joe Russo was picked as the most improved player.

VARSITY BASKETBALL — Row 1: J. Kerns, R. Torres, D. Carroll, G. Dodds, R. Sloan.
Row 2: G. Mykkanen, G. Keierleber, K. Lent, R. Jacobsen, S. Tharp, J. Russo.

Cagers Demonstrate Teamwork







Thrills from the 1960 basketball season as Keith Lent goes up for a score against Micohi. Other hardwood artists at work include Scott Tharp in the Morningside fracas and Richie Sloan looking for 2 points against cross town rivals, the Leuzinger Olympians. Gary Keierleber, rebound expert, sinks an important bucket in the North High tussle, while Co-Captain Don Carroll displays some mighty fancy footwork against the Monarchs. While his teammate is airborne, Gary Dodds sticks to the floor, keeping close watch on the ball in the Inglewood game.

"Who, me? No, Coach, not me!" Joe Russo's shocked innocence at Coach Mean's well-chosen words seems sincere enough. Perhaps it was really Jim Hoel who was the culprit. The accusing finger is pointed at him! Russo makes up for it, however, as he grounds a Monarch, while buddies Anderson, Tharp, and Bickers look on.

And Outstanding

JV basketeers had a fairly successful season as they won 9 and lost 5 against Bay League opponents. Team captains were John Nalbandian and Richard Peterson. Special awards went to Richard Peterson as most valuable player and Michael Graves for being the most improved player. The B team, led by Captain Jerry Cross, who was also most valuable player, placed second in the Torrance Tournament. In an exciting final game against the Santa Monica B's, the Cougars bowed 48-42. Tom Long was captain of the C's with Gary Bickers most valuable player and Larry Lent most improved player.

Go get it, Cougars!

Old

Varsity spiksters ended the league in 4th spot, scoring victories over Lynwood, North, Morningside, Redondo, and tying Inglewood High. Paced by most valuable man Al Geverink, who placed first in the high jump at the Huntington Beach and Arroyo Invitationals, the varsity thin clads wracked up the following new school records: Bob Sellers in the 880 and mile, Jerry Daquila in 120 high hurdles and 180 low hurdles, Steve Wolfe in the 440, and Al Geverink in the high jump. As the EL MOLINO went to press, the Cougars were rooting for John Hagethorn, Al Geverink, and Jerry Daquila to place in the CIF finals.

Records Are Shattered

Up and over! Senior Mike Wood soars over the high jump bar in a preliminary warm up. B star Gary Hunter, specialist in the low and high hurdles and high jump, scored more points than any other man on his team. C ace Kenny Umsted leads off for the record setting 440 relay, while Steve Wolfe performs similar service for the A relay team. Beware! Cougar shot put artists John Hagethorn and Al Jardine at work. Al Geverink clears the last barrier to score in the Inglewood Relays. Geverink also starred in the low and high hurdles, the high jump, and the broad jump. Speedy Jim Reale another B relay stalwart.

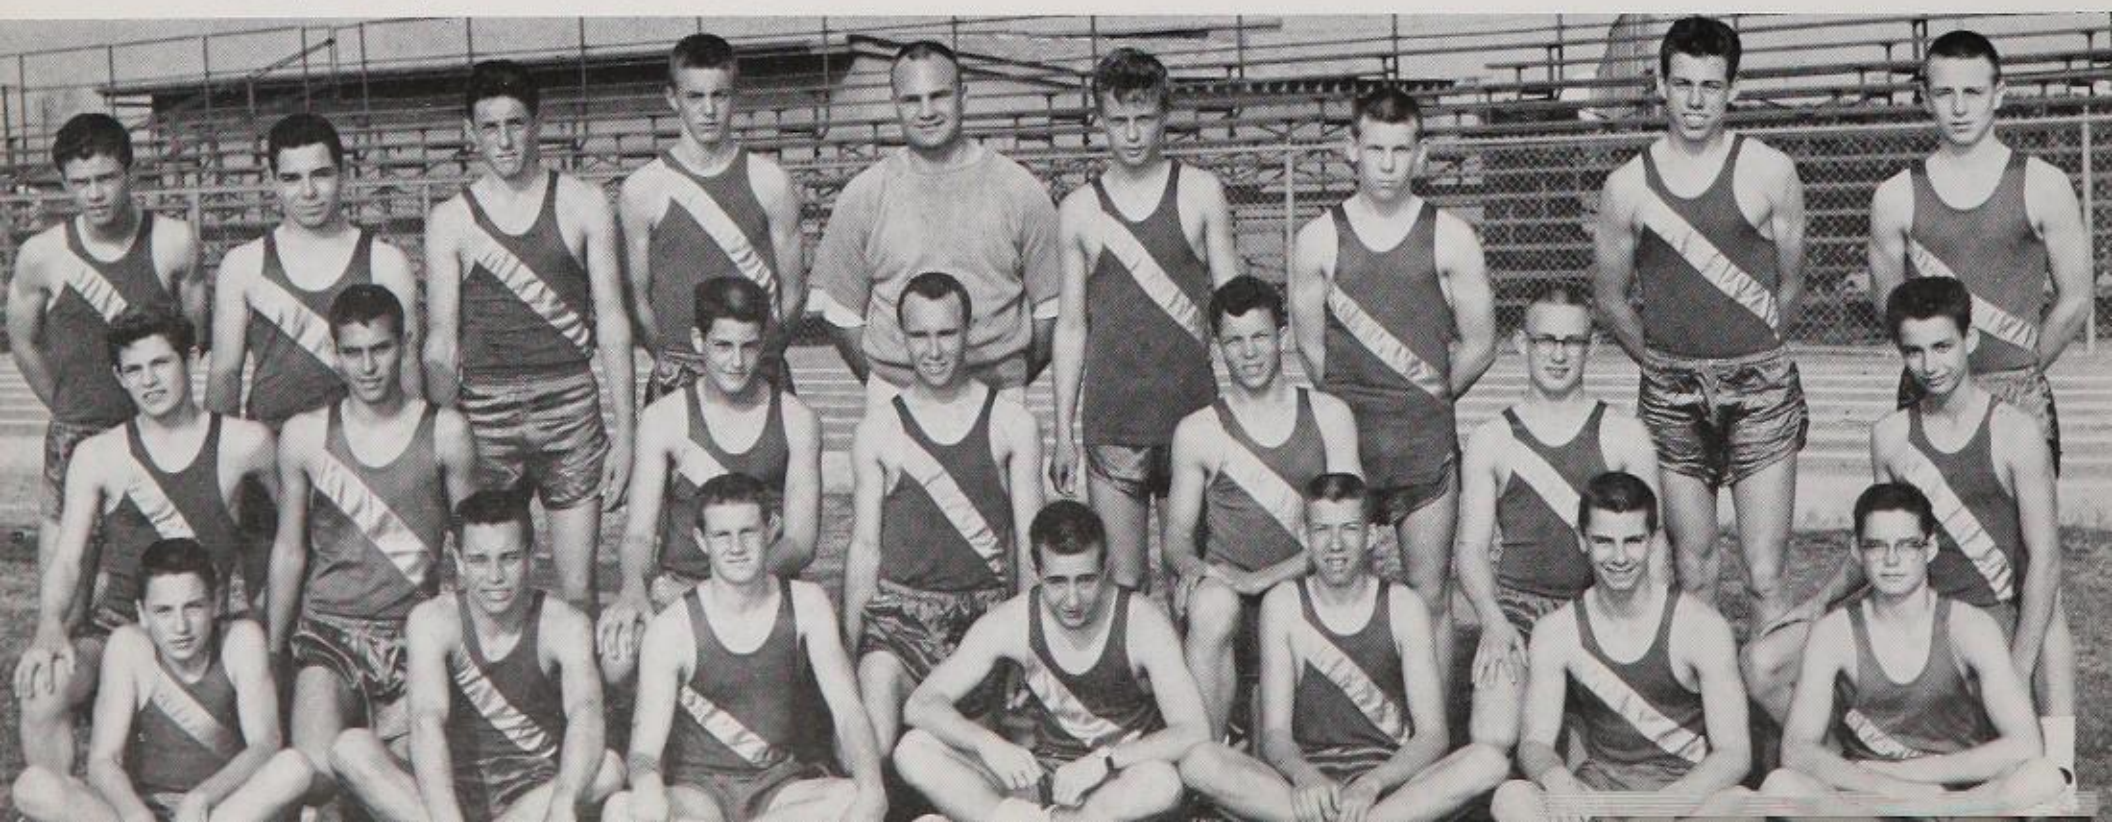
As Tracksters Set

B tracksters boasted fine performances by Captain Glenn Oclassen, who set a new record in the 220, and Bob Severance, who scored in the 660. The B relay team of Tom Long, Steve Smith, Jim Reale, and Glenn Oclassen turned in the time of 1:08.4 to chalk up another record. Most valuable B performer was Gary Hunter. C star Ken Umsted, most valuable man on the squad, teamed with Larry Lent, Tom Long, and Steve Smith to set a new relay mark; while Gary Bickers leaped 20' 2½" for future broad jumpers to aim at.

C TRACK — Row 1: G. Boll, L. Brooks, L. Lent, G. Pierce, R. Bell, T. Long, J. Wilcoxson. Row 2: K. Byrne, P. Mackie, G Dunn, K. Umsted, D. Harrison, N. Endicott, C. Gesserik. Row 3: J. Green, P. DeFuge, G. Downing, G. Bickers, Coach Kasten, R. Fiery, L. Acord, G. Jewell, L. Johnson.



Cross country competition was new to HHS this season, a welcome addition to the athletic program. Here Bob Sellers, most valuable man, works out, while Bob Bickers obviously has finished some stiff competition. Have courage, Bob; you'll recover! Steve Wolfe limbers up for the track season and new records. Captain for the cross country team was Jim Hoel.

New Marks

VARSITY AND JV CROSS COUNTRY — Row 1: B. Lumley, Manager; D. Carroll, S. Wolfe, J. Hoel, B. Sellers, J. Phillips, J. Bollin, T. Tilford, L. Johnson, J. Nalbandian. Row 2: B. Johnson, B. Severence, R. Bickers, G. Keierleber, Coach Muirhead, R. Peterson, B. Wilson, K. Lent, R. Hood.

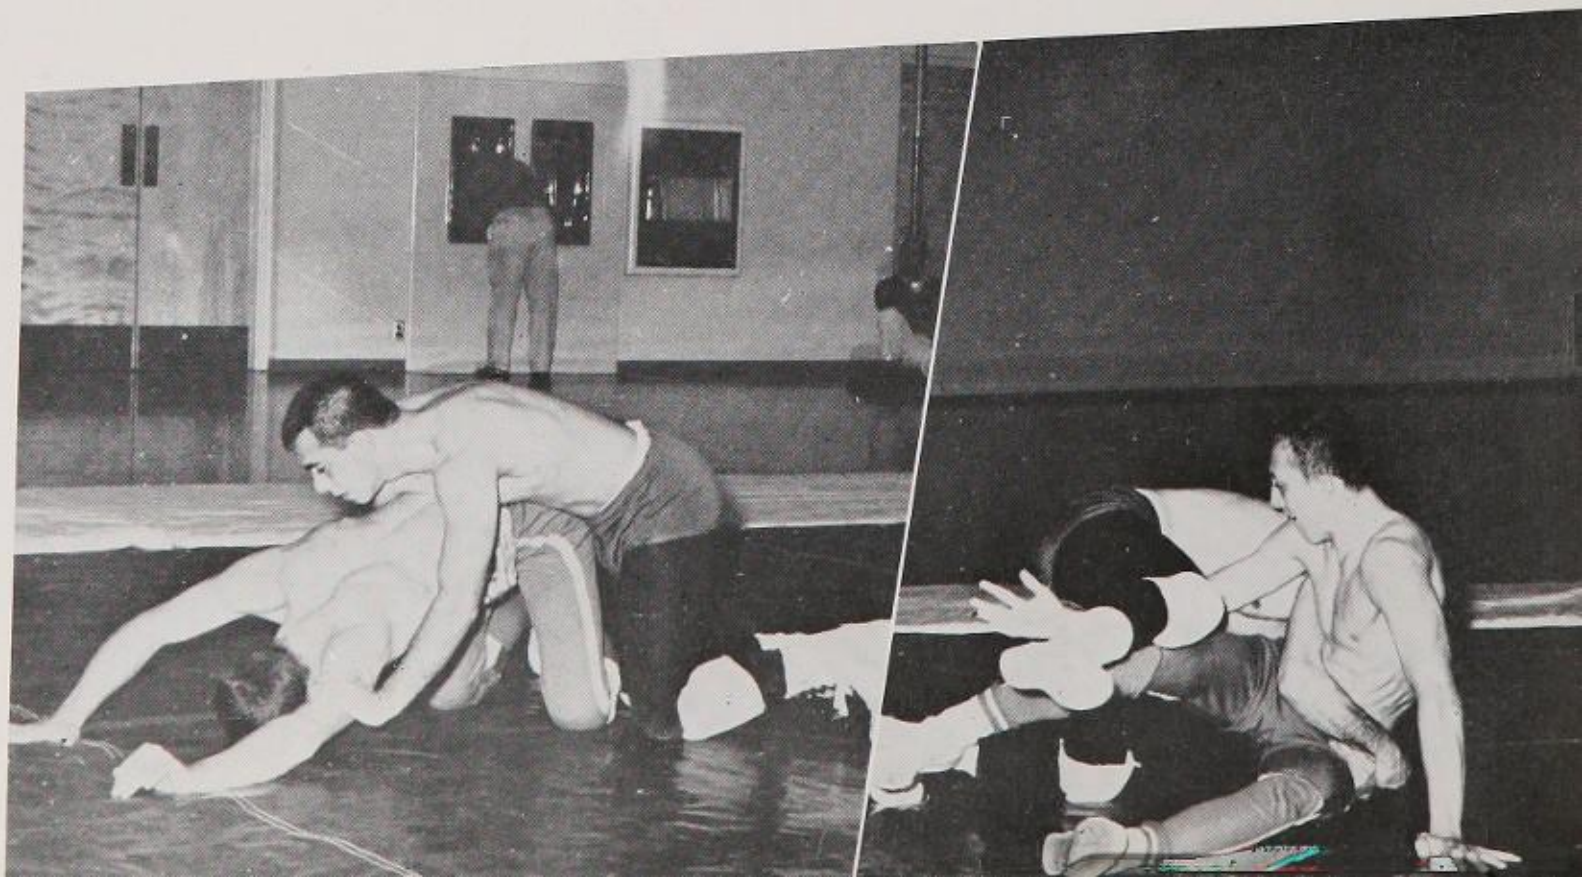
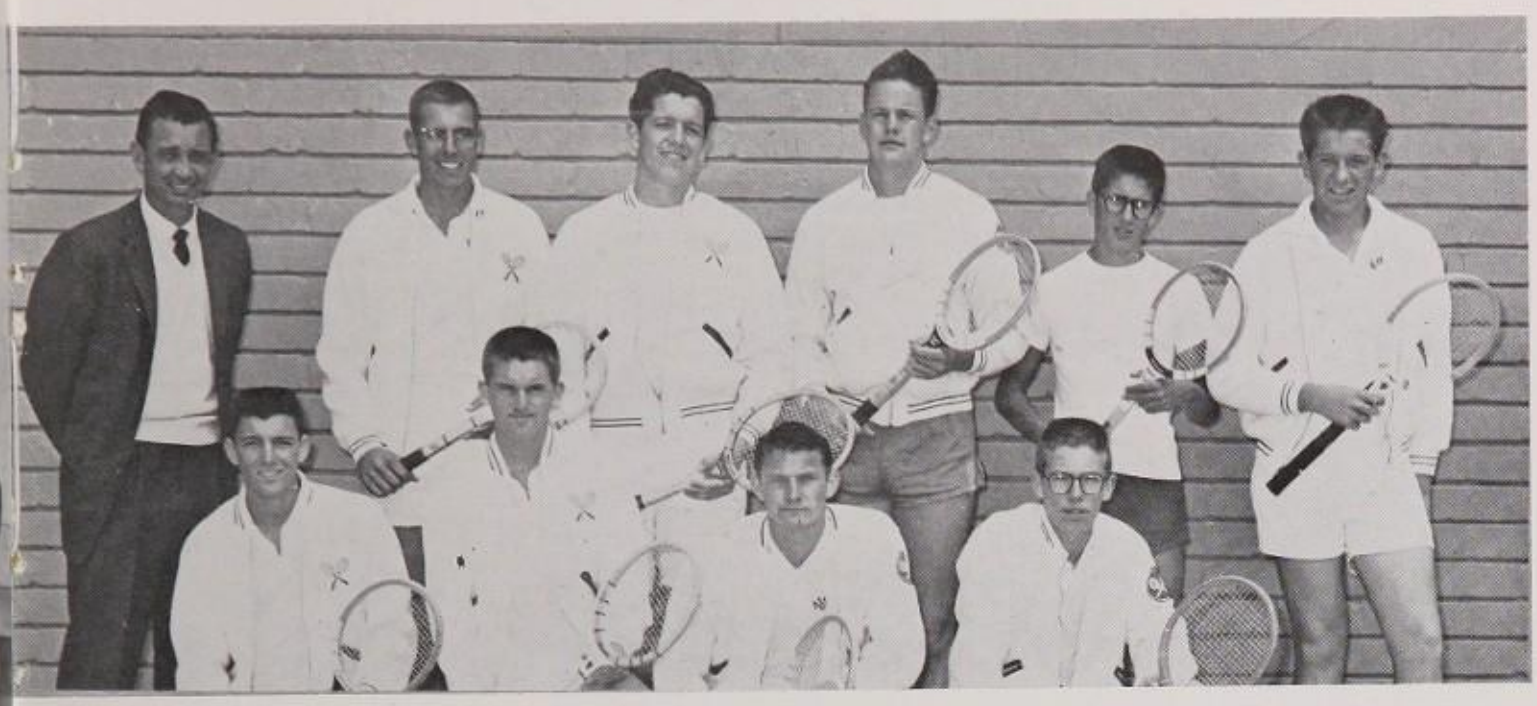
Grapplers Grunt And Groan

Hawthorne bone crunchers grappled their way through a 10 match season, to end up in 8th place in league standings. Senior John Arnold, champ of the El Camino Tournament and Hawthorne's shining hope to place in CIF, was forced out of competition when he suffered a broken ankle before the close of the season.



Get up off the mat, Lutz. We need a win! Teammate Pat Desmore is in a better position to smile at the TV cameras as he struggles with an Inglewood opponent.

As Netmen Seek League Victories



SENIOR TENNIS PLAYERS — Row 1: B. Fitzgerald, A. Kumlin, G. Deno, R. George. Row 2: Coach Ashley, S. Sanders, A. White, M. McCammon, E. Wissel, D. White.

The outstanding tennis player for Hawthorne in the 1960 season was Jim Stewart, followed closely by Adrian Kumlin. Luckily for the Cougars, both of these veterans will be back next year. Seniors Allan Kumlin, Steve Sanders, Bob Fitzgerald, Andy White, and Doug White all turned in great performances on occasion. Among the JV's, freshman Jerry Patchen appears headed for greatness as he went through the entire season undefeated. Others who will show well with a year or two more of participation are Andy Youngmeister, Paul Smith, Jim Jones, Gil Hinojoso, and John Parker.

TENNIS TEAM — Row 1: S. Sanders, R. George, B. Fitzgerald, E. Wissel, A. White, G. Deno, A. Kumlin, J. Stewart. Row 2: P. Smith, B. Butler, B. Porter, D. Williams, D. Hinojosa, J. Patchen, A. Youngmeister, B. Parker, Mr. McCammon.

Shape Up

A team of "youngsters," all of whom will be returning next season, enjoyed the best year ever chalked up by HHS golfers. Outstanding players Dick Chapin, Kevin Elmore, and Jeff Lefebvre will be back to head a group that should be strong Bay League contenders in 1961. This season's record read: 4 won, 9 lost, and 1 tied.

Batter

Batters up! Coach Duff Means lines up senior varsity players for a bit of extra practice. Any future Dodgers among this group? Step up and watch Steve Andersen, Monte Horton, Russ Jacobsen, Brian Wilson, Ron Richards, Joe Russo, Lindy Burr, and Richie Sloan.

Varsity horsehiders took 5th place in the league this year. The highlight of their season was Hawthorne's First Annual Invitational Tournament, in which they came in second. Co-captains for the diamond boys were Steve Andersen and Richard Sloan, with the latter also having the honor of being chosen most valuable player. Ron Baldwin came on strong during the season to be picked as most improved player.

JV BASEBALL — Row 1: B. Morris, J. Nalbandian, G. Persinger, R. Bausman, B. Perry, M. Hollingsworth, D. Ray. Row 2: Coach Hall, D. Quiring, T. Goodman, B. Shultz, B. Riggin, S. Wolfson, R. Robinson, B. Daquila.

Up! Play Ball!

The JV nine was having one of their most successful years, as the EL MOLINO went to press. Although the season was not completed, the squad had won 10 and lost 3, cinching at least a tie for first place in the league. There was every indication that they might walk off with the championship before the close of competition. One of the most exciting games of the entire season came in the opening game with Inglewood High when Darrel Quiring struck out 17 batters and allowed the Sentinels only 2 hits.

Slide, Brian, slide! Will Richie Sloan tag him out? Tune in tomorrow for the final episode in this thrillng adventure on the diamond! Russ Jacobsen appears to be quite gleeful about this game of baseball. Who pays any attention to that old adage about keeping both feet on the ground!

Girl Athletes Romp

Patsy Bell and Carla Elger led the GAA through many hours of fun, from the Baby Sister Party through the Olympics at the "Olympiad" Banquet to the Splash Party at the end of the year. The girl athletes were always active, always living up to their reputation of being one of the busiest groups on campus.

Linda Hoffman and Michele Cary appear to be highly amused at the antics of certain H Club members. Fred Ragatz and Don Carroll take it in stride. After all, girls will be girls.

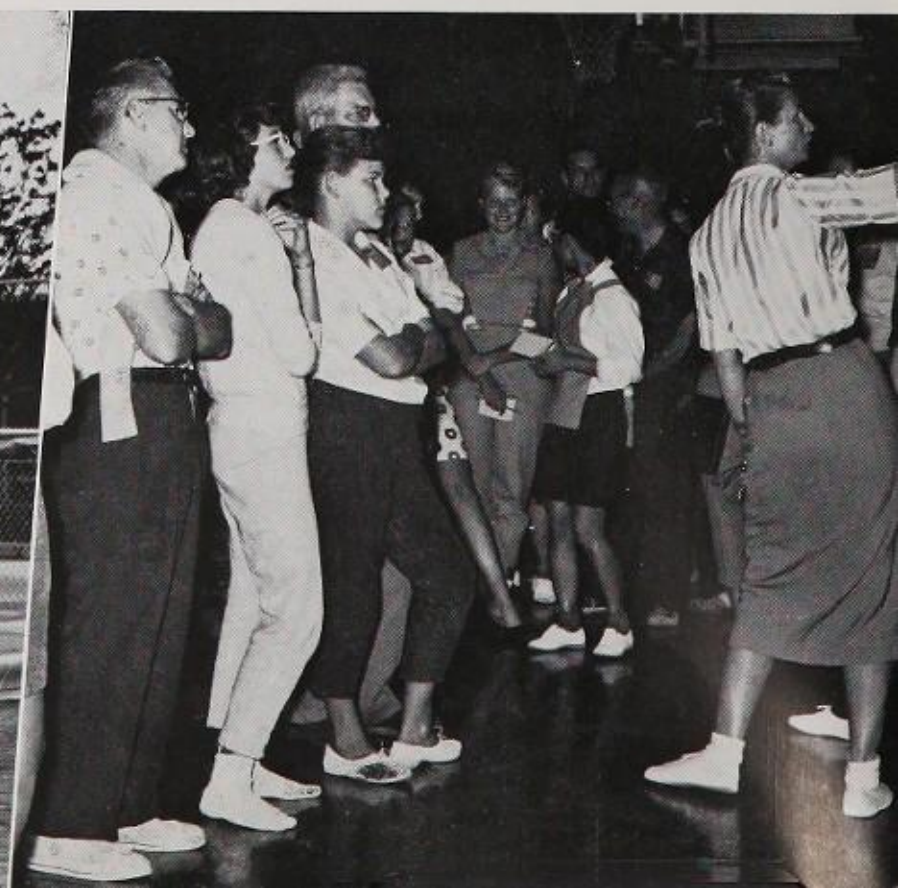
It was "Sayonara" for many at the last GAA banquet, as they remembered such things as playdays in a new league, the Pop's Pizza Party, a successful Bay League Council held at HHS, and many money making sales. Life without GAA; who could bear it?

Swimming enthusiasts combine fun and practice for playdays. This is one of the most popular sports for girls at HHS. A very earnest Mrs. Duffy gives a chalk talk at the Pop's Pizza Party. Regular class was never like this.



Fun

Volleyball, anyone? When played by the GAA, it can be a rough and tumble sport. Just getting in trim for the summer at the beach.

Are these girls really playing basketball or just posing? Oh, well, they really can play this game, so what difference does it make? Whether they were playing basketball, volleyball, ping pong, or softball, GAA members always played fair and hard.

What's this—a night in old Italy? No, just the annual Pop's Pizza Party. The food must be good. Look at those happy faces.

Stars

Even boys can enjoy GAA activities such as this co-ed barbecue spread. The girls wanted to prove their ability here as well as in athletic events.

In Sports

H CLUB — Row 1: B. Hoyoss, K. Darnelle, G. Cook, D. Cannon, B. Hoyoss, C. Hanson, L. Sam. Row 2: K. Saunders, J. Carnell, L. Moon, P. Bell, C. Elger, L. Hoffman, M. Cary.

The H Club—the elite of the girl athletes—sponsored a wide variety of activities during the year. In addition to the annual volleyball and basketball games against the faculty women, the H Clubbers competed against Chadwick in basketball, played volleyball against Redondo, staged a horrifying "Come As You Are" breakfast, and an equally startling costume and slumber party. On the more serious side, they sponsored the Dana Play-offs and an Intermediate Color Day, as well as an alumni barbecue and a visit to the Ice Capades.

Who says our fathers are getting old? They don't look it tonight, but wait until tomorrow! Anyone for well-done hamburgers? These kids will never win the best cook award, but they are having fun with those char-burnt goodies.

At last

We're In A Stew . . . .

. . . anxiously awaiting the delivery of the 1960 EL MOLINO. Mixed emotions prevail as we view our year of hard work. At times we were sick of it all! Now we are relieved to have the work finished, sad to know it's our last yearbook, eager to get the students' reaction. Naturally we are disappointed that some things are not quite what we wanted, but pleasantly surprised that others turned out better than anticipated. Whatever our momentary emotions, we are always grateful for the constant loyalty and support of the townspeople—our advertisers. And the book could never have been completed without the help of patient teachers and administrators and the enthusiastic selling job done by Mr. Harrison's bookkeeping class. There are many others to thank, especially Phil Clark, representing the S. K. Smith Cover Co., Southland Press, and Jack Cannicott of the Los Angeles Engraving Co. Thanks, Jack, for the ideas, sandwiches, cokes, and jokes! We loved riding in the white Cadillac. David Pilon of David's Portraits worked with seemingly endless energies giving us senior portraits as well as most of the group and action shots. He responded to calls at any time, doing work "above and beyond the call of duty." Calvin Shoumaker and Mr. Hall's advanced photography class provided the book with more and better pictures than we've ever had before, making this the biggest EL MOLINO yet. Our thanks to Mr. Nylander of the Nylander Studio for the fine portraits of the Victory Queen and her court and our Board of Trustees and superintendent. Mr. Hap Byers of the Byers Studios graciously gave pictures of school dances and the Junior-Senior Prom. The lay-out and plans for the opening section and the division pages were done by Mr. Clayton Williams, the Toulouse-Lautrec of Hawthorne High School, artist, fencer, chess player, man of many talents. Please accept our thanks and appreciation in place of cash! Photos for these special sections were taken by David Hoel, senior art student, a dark horse who came from nowhere to provide some of the best photography the EL MOLINO has ever had. Thanks for your time and interest, Dave. It paid off. And, as always, Mr. William Goodfellow was there to help us with pictures, ideas, and moral support. It isn't every yearbook that can boast pictures of the Burma Road on the cover and title page! And so with great pride we present your 1960 EL MOLINO!
